3. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this policy the definition of "spouse" and "dependent" as found in the Sun Life of Canada Extended Health Plan shall be applied:

- Dependent – an employee's unmarried children, excluding a child who qualified as an employee of the University and/or any child who has attained age 21 (or age 25 in the case of a full-time student wholly dependent on the employee for support). This is extended to include an unmarried child who attains the limiting age, but for reasons of disability is chiefly dependent on the employee for support and maintenance.
- Spouse - a person is considered a spouse if he/she is the employee's spouse by virtue of a legal marriage or an employee's partner who has been publicly maintained and represented as their spouse for at least 12 months.

4. COURSES AND PROGRAMMES COVERED

The bursary program applies only to those degree courses and programs offered by the University for which the Board of Governors sets the fees. From time to time, upon approval from the Provost, specific non-degree programs may become eligible for this bursary program.

A student must have been admitted to such a degree course or program to be eligible for the bursary.

5. VALUE

The value of the tuition bursary benefit is reviewed annually. Current year benefit amounts are provided online at www.workingatmcmaster.ca.

For the 2009/2010 academic session (September to April), the value of the bursary is $3,750 based on a course load of 30 units or more. For students taking less than a full load, this program will cover $125 per unit to a maximum of $3,750. For those students enrolled in spring/summer session courses the program will cover $125 per unit in addition to the $3,750. In the case of full-time graduate students, the bursary is $1,875 per term for maximum of 3 terms in the academic session.

The bursary benefit will not be credited for charges for courses that are cancelled by the student.
