1. Policy on Requests for Relief for Missed Academic Term Work – Winter Term 2022

On January 14, 2022, the Senate Executive Committee approved, on behalf of Senate, the establishment of the Policy on Requests for Relief for Missed Academic Term Work - Winter Term 2022 effective for the period of January 17, 2022 to April 30, 2022, to temporarily supersede the Policy on Requests for Relief for Missed Academic Term Work, as set out in the attached.

2. Sexual Violence Policy

On January 26, 2022, the Senate Executive Committee approved, on behalf of Senate and for recommendation to the Board of Governors, the proposed revisions to the Sexual Violence Policy, effective February 7, 2022.
Dear colleagues,

McMaster currently has a Policy on Requests for Relief for Missed Academic Term Work for students. The policy guides the use of the McMaster Student Absence Form (MSAF) that can be accessed by students through an online portal the first time (self-report) or through their associate dean’s office for additional times or for extended absences (administrative report). The request is submitted upon a return to academic work and covers three calendar days of missed work.

Our current health and safety guidelines at McMaster for those who need to self-isolate due to symptoms or exposure to someone in the household who is COVID-19 positive are as follows. Students, faculty, and staff are to:

- Follow the provincial government’s current guidelines for isolation. For those fully vaccinated, the current isolation period is five days. View the province’s COVID-19 Self-assessment Tool if you have been exposed or have symptoms of COVID-19 to learn if self-isolation is required. Specific instructions are included in the screening tool if you are required to self-isolate.

To align the period of time that is covered by the MSAF policy with the current guidelines for isolation due to COVID-19, we recommend the approval of the Policy on Requests for Relief for Missed Academic Term Work – Winter Term 2022. This modified policy changes the period of time that is covered by the MSAF from three days to five days. This policy will supersede the existing policy for only the Winter Term of 2022. After this time, we will return to the original policy.

The original policy did not originally go through Graduate Council, but I have consulted with Doug Welch, the Vice-Provost and Dean of Graduate Studies, and he is supportive. This policy did receive approval through the Undergraduate Council Executive committee.

Thank you for considering.

Best wishes,

Kim Dej

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR WINTER TERM 2022

For the period of January 17, 2022 to April 30, 2022, this Policy will temporarily supersede the Policy on Requests for Relief for Missed Academic Term Work (effective May 1, 2021).

The Policy on Requests for Relief for Missed Academic Term Work (effective May 1, 2021), will be reinstated effective May 1, 2022.
PREAMBLE

1. The University recognizes that students periodically require relief from academic work for medical or other personal situations. This Policy aims to manage these requests by taking into account the needs and obligations of students, instructors and administrators. It is the prerogative of the instructor of the course to determine the appropriate relief for missed term work in their course. Any concerns regarding the granting of relief should be directed to the respective Faculty/Program Office.

2. Requests for relief should be made with a commitment to academic integrity in mind. Requests that deviate from this commitment will be handled under the Academic Integrity Policy and/or Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, where appropriate.

Exclusions

3. This Policy cannot be used:
   a) for academic work that has already been completed or work that has been attempted (which includes the viewing and/or partial completion of on-line assessments (quizzes, tests, etc.));
   b) to seek an accommodation to meet religious, Indigenous or Spiritual Observances (see the Policy on Academic Accommodation for Religious, Indigenous and Spiritual Observances);
   c) to seek an accommodation related to a permanent or temporary disability, or a retroactive accommodation (see the policy Academic Accommodation of Students with Disabilities); or
   d) to apply for relief for any final examination or its equivalent (see Petitions for Special Consideration in the Undergraduate Calendar).

McMaster Student Absence Form (MSAF)

4. The McMaster Student Absence Form (MSAF) is a Mosaic tool that, for the purpose of this Policy:
   a) is used to allow students to submit Self-Report (Type A) requests for relief; and
   b) is used by Faculty/Program Offices for Administrative Report (Type B) requests to:
      (i) manage requests for relief; and
      (ii) communicate with students and instructors about these requests.

5. The MSAF is available in the MOSAIC Student Center (in the drop-down menu under OTHER ACADEMICS).
REQUESTS FOR RELIEF: SELF-REPORT (TYPE A) - FOR WINTER TERM 2022 ONLY

6. Self Report (Type A) requests for relief are for:
   a) missed academic work worth less than 25% of the final grade, resulting from medical or personal situations lasting up to three-five (35) calendar days.

7. Students are expected to use the MSAF tool to make Self Report (Type A) requests, which:
   a) may only be submitted once per Term;
   b) requires no supporting documentation; and
   c) applies only to work that is due within the period for which the request applies, i.e. the 35-day period that is specified in the MSAF; however, all work due in that period can be covered by one request.

8. An email will be sent to the course instructor(s) to inform them of the request.

9. The instructor will determine the appropriate relief for the Self-Report (Type A) request.

10. Students must immediately follow up with their instructor(s) after submitting the Self-Report (Type A) request. Failure to do so may negate the opportunity for relief.

REQUESTS FOR RELIEF: ADMINISTRATIVE REPORT (TYPE B) - FOR WINTER TERM 2022 ONLY

11. Administrative Report (Type B) requests for relief are for:
   a) medical or personal situations lasting more than three-five (53) calendar days; and/or
   b) missed academic work worth 25% or more of the final grade; and/or
   c) any request for relief in a Term where the MSAF tool has been used previously in that Term.

12. Students must report to their Faculty/Program Office to discuss their situation and will be required to provide appropriate supporting documentation (see Documentation Requirements below).

13. If warranted, the Faculty/Program Office will process the relief request and will notify the instructor(s) and the student.

14. The instructor will determine the appropriate relief for these Administrative Report (Type B) requests.

15. Students must immediately follow up with their instructor(s) after being notified their request has been processed. Failure to do so may negate the opportunity for relief.
Documentation Requirements - FOR WINTER TERM 2022 ONLY

16. If the reason for a request for relief is medical, the approved McMaster University Medical Form covering the relevant dates must be submitted. The student must be seen by a health care practitioner at the earliest possible date, normally on or before the date of the missed work and the health care practitioner must verify the duration of the illness.

17. If the reason is non-medical, appropriate documentation with verifiable origin covering the relevant dates must be submitted, normally within three-five (35) business days.

18. In some circumstances, students may be advised to submit a Petition for Special Consideration.

Privacy

19. All personal information, including supporting documentation (e.g. personal health information) requested by the University to facilitate relief requests shall be handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Re: Sexual Violence Policy Revisions

As the Responsible Executive for McMaster’s Sexual Violence Policy, I am bringing your attention to and seeking your approval for proposed revisions to this Policy to take effect by March 1, 2022, in accordance with a recent Provincial directive.

The Rational for Revisions

Following student advocacy and stakeholder consultation, on September 16, 2021, the provincial government announced Ontario Regulation 646/21 to amend Ontario Regulation 131/16, which stipulate provisions for Sexual Violence at Colleges and Universities under the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities Act.

The two amendments enacted through O. Reg. 646/21 s. 1 (1) and (2) are below:

(1) Subsection 2 (1) of Ontario Regulation 131/16 is amended by striking out “and” at the end of clause (d) and by adding the following clause:

(d.1) informs students that if they, in good faith, report an incident of, or make a complaint about, sexual violence, they will not be subject to discipline or sanctions for violations of the college’s or university’s policies relating to drug or alcohol use at the time the alleged sexual violence occurred; and

(2) Subsection 2 (2) of the Regulation is amended by adding the following paragraph:

14. A statement that students who disclose their experience of sexual violence through reporting an incident of, making a complaint about, or accessing supports and services for sexual violence, will not be asked irrelevant questions during the investigation process by the college’s or university’s staff or investigators, including irrelevant questions relating to the student’s sexual expression or past sexual history.
The Proposed Revisions to McMaster’s Policy

McMaster’s Commitment (s. 9 – s. 14) to trauma-informed practice guides the university’s sexual violence response in a manner that is already aligned with the new trauma-informed directives.

However, to make the practices more explicit, codification of the Provincial directives in the Policy is recommended by inserting the following two new clauses as s. 11 and s. 12. after existing clause s. 10 in the Commitments section. This language has been updated following the discussion at Senate on January 12, 2022, and now adopts directly the language of the Ontario Regulation, with the following adjustments:

1. capitalization of some words to be consistent with the McMaster Sexual Violence Policy, and
2. slight re-wording, e.g., changing ‘report an incident’ to ‘reports an incident’.

Proposed new language:

11. A student who, in good faith, reports an incident of, or makes a Complaint about, Sexual Violence, will not be subject to discipline or sanctions for violations of the university’s policies relating to drug or alcohol use at the time the alleged Sexual Violence occurred.

12. A student who discloses their experience of Sexual Violence through reporting an incident of, making a Complaint about, or accessing supports and services for Sexual Violence, will not be asked irrelevant questions during the investigation process by the university’s staff or investigators, including irrelevant questions relating to the student’s sexual expression or past sexual history.

Please see the attached copy of the Sexual Violence Policy with the proposed new language inserted.

Motion:

that the Senate Executive Committee approve, on behalf of the Senate and for recommendation to the Board of Governors, the proposed revisions to the Sexual Violence Policy, effective February 7, 2022.

SECTION I: INTRODUCTION

PURPOSE

1. All members of the University Community ("Community Members" see clause 5 below) have a right to study, work, and live in an environment that is free of Sexual Violence.

2. The purpose of this Policy is to:
   a) articulate McMaster University's commitment to Sexual Violence prevention and response;
   b) identify services and resources related to Sexual Violence that are available to all members of the McMaster University Community ("University Community"); and
   c) explain the complaint and reporting options, supports, and accommodations that are available to all members of the University Community who experience Sexual Violence.

SCOPE

3. Sexual Violence means any sexual act or act targeting a person's sexuality, gender identity or gender expression, whether the act is physical or psychological in nature, that is committed, threatened or attempted against a person without the person's Consent, and includes Sexual Assault, Sexual Harassment, stalking, indecent exposure, voyeurism and sexual exploitation.

4. This Policy prohibits all forms of Sexual Violence:
   a) acts of Sexual Assault, which fall under the broad definition of Sexual Violence, are considered a violation of this Policy and its procedures below shall apply; and
   b) acts of Sexual Harassment, which fall under the broad definition of Sexual Violence, may be considered violations of the Discrimination & Harassment Policy and its procedures may apply.

5. The Policy applies to:
   a) all Members of the University Community ("Community Members") include: students (graduate, undergraduate, and continuing education), staff, faculty, medical residents, volunteers, visitors (including visiting professors), and institutional administrators and officials representing McMaster University; and
   b) all University-related activities, which are activities (authorized and non-authorized) where there is a clear nexus to the working or learning environment at the University (on and off University premises).

6. When allegations of Sexual Harassment are to be processed under the Discrimination & Harassment Policy, there may be circumstances where the allegations in a Complaint necessitate following the procedures under both this Policy and the Discrimination & Harassment Policy.

7. Where a Complaint is filed that involves behaviour prohibited by this Policy, as well as behaviour more appropriately dealt with under the Discrimination & Harassment Policy, the Complaint may be processed under the Discrimination & Harassment Policy, without compromising the Complainant's right to access the specialized supports available through the Sexual Violence Prevention and Response Office. However, any proceedings related to the Complaint will determine if there has been a violation of the Discrimination &

8. Unless otherwise specified in this Policy, the Policy and its provisions apply where the University has the jurisdiction to pursue, adjudicate, or take steps to safeguard the University community.

MCMASTER’S COMMITMENT

9. Notwithstanding the limits of confidentiality, described below, the University recognizes that enabling confidential disclosures of experiences of Sexual Violence enhances individual and community safety. The University is committed to creating an environment in which Community Members feel able to disclose experiences of Sexual Violence and access support, accommodations and information on complaint and reporting options under the Sexual Violence Response Protocol.

10. The University recognizes that making a Disclosure, filing a Complaint, or being the focus of allegations of Sexual Violence may be difficult. The University is committed to ensuring that all individuals making disclosures or who are parties to a complaint, be they Complainants or Respondents, will be treated with dignity and respect, will be guaranteed due process and procedural fairness, will be afforded privacy and confidentiality within its reasonable limits, and will have access to appropriate support and assistance throughout.

11. A student who, in good faith, reports an incident of, or makes a Complaint about, Sexual Violence, will not be subject to discipline or sanctions for violations of the university’s policies relating to drug or alcohol use at the time the alleged Sexual Violence occurred.

12. A student who discloses their experience of Sexual Violence through reporting an incident of, making a Complaint about, or accessing supports and services for Sexual Violence, will not be asked irrelevant questions during the investigation process by the university’s staff or investigators, including irrelevant questions relating to the individual student’s sexual expression or past sexual history.

13. When a University complaint process is initiated, the University is committed to providing an intake, investigation, and adjudication process that is trauma-informed, timely, and follows the principles of procedural fairness.

14. The University is committed to addressing Sexual Violence in a manner that is informed by current knowledge, scholarship and best practices in understanding how Sexual Violence intersects with other forms of violence and social inequities.

15. The University recognizes that the experience of Sexual Violence can be traumatic, having negative immediate and/or longer-term effects on an individual’s physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and social health and wellbeing. The University is committed to providing appropriate trauma-informed support, accommodations, resources and referrals.

16. The University recognizes that socially marginalized individuals (on the basis of factors such as race, disability, Indigeneity, sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression, religion, spirituality, age, citizenship and socio-economic status) experience disproportionately higher incidences of sexual and other forms of violence. The University is committed to ensuring culturally respectful and relevant supports and services that are attuned to systemic social inequities. The University recognizes that individuals from diverse communities who face systemic barriers and discrimination may be reluctant to disclose Sexual Violence to institutional authorities. The University is committed to examining and eliminating individual bias and institutional barriers in the organization and delivery of its services and supports.

POLICY REVIEW

17. The Policy will be reviewed annually for compliance with the Occupational Health & Safety Act. The Policy will be reviewed every three years in accordance with the Sexual Violence and Harassment Plan Act in a process inclusive of input from students, key University constituencies, women’s organizations and other community partners with expertise in Sexual Violence.

18. Student participation in the three-yearly policy review process will be coordinated by the Equity and Inclusion Office in collaboration with the McMaster Student Union, and the McMaster Graduate Student Association, and will include a diverse cross-section of campus partners with experience and expertise related to Sexual Violence prevention and response.

CONFIDENTIALITY (LIMITATIONS)

36. The University recognizes the importance of confidentiality both for individuals coming forward to Disclose or Report an experience of Sexual Violence and for individuals who are the subject of a Complaint, and will take steps to protect the confidentiality of both parties to the extent permitted by its legal obligations outlined below.

37. The University and its employees and agents will protect personal information and handle records in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and the Personal Health Information Protection Act, where applicable in the circumstances, with the provisions of applicable collective agreements and, in the case of health care providers, in keeping with any professional obligations.

38. When making a Disclosure or Report to any University office, individuals shall receive clear and transparent information about the level of, and limits to, confidentiality that apply.

39. The University recognizes that confidentiality is a crucial consideration in creating an environment in which individuals feel able to Disclose incidents of Sexual Violence and to access Support, Accommodations, and information. The University will share identifying information only in circumstances where it is necessary in order to administer this Policy, to address safety concerns, or to satisfy a legal reporting requirement. In such circumstances, the minimum amount of information needed to allow such concerns to be addressed, or to meet such requirements, will be disclosed. Such circumstances include those where:
   a) an individual is at risk of harm to self;
   b) an individual is at risk of harming others;
   c) there are reasonable grounds to be concerned about risk of future violence or the safety of the University and/or broader community;
   d) disclosure is required by law, for instance, suspected abuse of someone under the age of 16, reports of intimate partner/domestic violence, or to comply with legislation, such as the Occupational Health and Safety Act, the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act, or with human rights legislation; and/or
   e) to comply with the reporting requirements of regulatory bodies and/or professional licensing bodies.

40. Where there are reasonable grounds to be concerned about risk of future violence or the safety of the broader community or the public, or where the University is otherwise obligated to do so, the University may report the incident to Hamilton Police Services. In these situations:
   a) the relevant Decision-Maker will be responsible for making the decision to disclose information to Hamilton Police Services;
   b) the name of the Respondent, if known, will be shared; and
   c) the name of the Complainant will not be shared without their consent, unless doing so would address a reporting obligation or mitigate a safety risk.
41. Some offices and Community Members have additional limitations to confidentiality because of their particular reporting requirements or professional obligations. For example:
   a) all regulated health professionals are obligated to report suspected sexual abuse of a patient by a regulated health professional to that professional’s governing body if this information is acquired during the course of their practice; and
   b) Special Constables in Security Services are required to investigate reports of abuse of someone under the age of 16 and reports of intimate partner/domestic violence and to lay charges in all cases when there are reasonable grounds to believe a criminal offence has been committed, regardless of whether the target of the violence wishes to have further involvement with the legal process.

42. As part of the University’s responsibility to maintain an environment free from Sexual Violence, information may be shared on a need-to-know basis.

43. Procedural limits to confidentiality may also occur if the University is subject to legal proceedings that, in the opinion of the Provost or the Vice-President (Operations and Finance), require the disclosure of information.

44. The importance of preserving the confidentiality of Complaints and any related proceedings will be explained to all parties as a necessary measure to protect the integrity of the proceedings.
SECTION IV: PROCEDURAL GUIDELINES

ADVISOR / SUPPORT PERSON

45. An Individual who is a party to a Complaint may be accompanied by an Advisor, a Support Person or legal counsel at any stage of any of the procedures outlined in this Policy. Any costs of accompaniment or representation are to be borne by the individual.

TIME LIMITATIONS FOR BRINGING FORWARD A COMPLAINT

46. There are no time limitations on bringing forward a Complaint. However, individuals are encouraged to report a Complaint at the earliest opportunity, as the longer the time lapse between the incident and the Complaint, the more difficult it becomes to investigate effectively. Once a Complaint is received, it will be dealt with as expeditiously as possible.

REPRISAL

47. The University prohibits reprisal or threats of reprisal against any person who, sincerely and in good faith, makes use of this Policy or participates in any process held under its jurisdiction. Any individual who is concerned that they are the subject of reprisals or threats should report their concerns to an Intake Office. Where appropriate, sanctions under the relevant policy (including this Policy, Discrimination & Harassment Policy, and/or the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities) legislation or contract, may be applied against the individual(s) responsible for the reprisal.

INTERIM MEASURES AND ONGOING SUPPORT OF ALL PARTIES

48. At any stage in proceedings under this Policy it may be necessary to take Interim Measures in order to safeguard the environment of Community Members who are involved or may be affected. Interim Measures shall not be construed as evidence of either guilt or a finding of violation of this Policy, or as an affirmation of innocence/finding of non-violation of this Policy.

49. The authority to approve Interim Measures will rest with the relevant Decision-Maker in line with the Respondent’s reporting structure.

50. Interim Measures will be reviewed on an ongoing basis by the Director of the appropriate Intake Office throughout the process to ensure the measures remain necessary and appropriate in the circumstances. Interim Measures are temporary and do not extend beyond the final resolution of a Complaint.

51. Interim Measures may include, but are not limited to, the rearrangement of academic/employment responsibilities or oversight, an administrative leave of absence, the rearrangement of residence location (where possible), adjustments in University activities (e.g. attendance at guest lectures, social events), issuance of a no contact order, or implementation of a persona non grata declaration.

52. In the event an Employee is directed to take an administrative leave as an Interim Measure, the conditions of the administrative leave shall accord with the terms of any applicable collective agreement. In the absence of an applicable collective agreement (e.g. where the employee is faculty or The Management Group (TMG)), the leave shall be without loss of pay or benefits. It is understood that an administrative leave as an Interim Measure is non-disciplinary and is designed to separate a person from a situation or another
53. Should an Investigation extend beyond six months, there will be a full review by the Response Team in consultation with the Decision-Maker to assess progress, to consider fairness to all parties, thoroughness, timeliness, and confidentiality, and to consider any necessary next steps.

DATA GATHERING & RECORD KEEPING

54. The Director (SVPRO) is responsible for: maintaining and reporting data relating to Sexual Violence consultations and disclosures as well as prevention education and response training initiatives and programs.

55. The Equity and Inclusion Office is responsible for collecting and reporting annual anonymized, aggregate data on Consultations, Disclosures, Complaints, Investigations, and all Outcomes and Sanctions, to the Senate and the Board of Governors.

56. Data for the annual report is collected and maintained by the Equity and Inclusion Office and includes data collected from the Sexual Violence Prevention and Response Office, the Human Rights and Dispute Resolution Program, Employee & Labour Relations, the Student Support & Case Management Office, the Faculty of Health Sciences Professionalism Office, and Security Services. The purpose of the annual report is to inform education and training initiatives.

57. In developing the annual report, the utmost care will be taken to ensure that individuals’ identities remain confidential and that data gathering does not discourage individuals who wish to disclose from coming forward.

58. All notes, materials, Investigation reports, and decisions, pertaining to Complaints will be kept by the relevant Intake Office for seven years. These records may be retained longer, subject to the discretion of the appropriate Director.

SUBJECT: Response to an Enquiry at Senate

The following information is in response to an enquiry raised at the Senate meeting on January 12, 2022. The enquiry was regarding approval of item 10.b., the Discrimination and Harassment Policy, at the December 11, 2019 meeting of the Senate. I have reviewed the information available for how the item was approved and consulted with the 2019 review group and relevant offices to generate this response.

Governance

The Senate meeting materials were posted one week in advance of the meeting, including the materials for the Discrimination and Harassment Policy item (10.b.). Senate meeting materials were updated before the meeting but there were no changes to this item. Senators were provided with a cover memo, a clean copy revised Discrimination and Harassment policy for approval, and the current version (2017) of the Policy on Discrimination and Harassment. A track change version of the revisions was not provided as significant formatting changes were being suggested. The cover memo provided to Senate detailed the individuals involved in the revisions and outlined the consultation process. A draft 7 version of the revisions was sent to MUFA, employee groups and select university offices for review and feedback. The final version, sent to the Senate for approval, incorporated the responses and comments received from those consultations.

The cover memo was primarily focused on the proposed changes to the Sexual Violence policy which was also being brought forward for approval, and which included a number of substantive revisions, as detailed in the memo. Although a brief note was included at the end of the memo in relation to the Discrimination and Harassment Policy, a more detailed summary of proposed revisions to that policy should have been detailed in the memo as well. Going forward, the Secretariat will ensure meeting materials include a cover memo that outlines at a high level the revisions that are being proposed. The standard practice for policy changes is to provide a track change version of the policy, however when the changes are extensive this becomes ineffective and instead a clean copy and the current policy are provided. In such situations, the memo explaining the revisions is very important.

A track change version showing the changes between draft 7 and the final version is being prepared and will be shared with MUFA shortly.

Freedom of Expression

The enquiry at Senate was principally concerned with the removal of the words ‘exceeding the bounds of freedom of expression’ from this section of the policy:

> This Policy expressly prohibits any discriminatory and/or harassing action and/or conduct, verbal or non-verbal, directed at or about one or more individuals or groups, that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment (poisoned environment which), or interferes with academic or work performance, in a manner that exceeds the bounds of freedom of expression and academic freedom.*

The reference to “freedom of expression” was removed from this section of the policy as it could be interpreted as imposing a duty on the University which only applies to government under the Canadian Charter of Rights & Freedoms (the “Charter”). Courts in Ontario have been clear and consistent that the Charter does not apply to universities. In contrast, the preservation of academic freedom is clearly the responsibility of universities. Since 2019, the issue of freedom of expression on campus has evolved and further references to “freedom of expression” could be considered provided that due consideration is given to university autonomy, the potential limits of freedom of expression in the context of discrimination and/or harassment and reasonable qualifiers for the university context. Such questions could receive full consideration as part of the next regular review of the policy.

For the information of Senators, the policy includes a section called McMasters Commitment, a part of which reads:

> 10. The University upholds a fundamental commitment to freedom of expression and association for all its members and to academic freedom for faculty. In exercising those freedoms, all its members are required to respect the rights and freedoms of others, including the right to freedom from Discrimination and Harassment.

Operationalizing the Policy

While the policy has gone through several iterations (2015 Policy on Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Harassment: Prevention & Response, 2017 Policy on Discrimination & Harassment: Prevention & Response, and 2019 Discrimination & Harassment Policy) the approach for assessing complaints has remained the same throughout. The Policy prohibits discrimination and harassment, as well as any discriminatory or harassing action and/or conduct, verbal or non-verbal, directed at or about one or more individuals or groups, that creates a poisoned environment.

Upon receipt of a complaint, it is assessed (by the respective Intake Office Director or Response Team for complex cases) to determine whether a prima facie case exists. A prima facie case is one in which it reasonably appears on first impression that, the allegations, if investigated and found to be true, would amount to discrimination or harassment.

The framework for discrimination is the following: differential treatment of a person (or group) based on one or more protected human rights grounds resulting in an adverse impact on the person (or group).

The framework for harassment is the following: engagement in a course of vexatious comment or conduct that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome. “Vexatious” comment or conduct is comment or conduct made without reasonable cause or excuse.

The framework for a Poisoned Environment is the following: an environment where harassing and/or discriminatory conduct is found to be sufficiently severe, intimidating, hostile, offensive, and/or pervasive to cause significant and unreasonable interference to a person’s study or work environment.

The Intake Office Director or Response Team (comprising Directors of relevant Intake Offices as well as security services and legal counsel, where necessary) carefully assesses statements of complaint to determine whether a prima facie case exists and makes recommendations (to relevant Decision-Makers) regarding whether to investigate and apply any appropriate interim measures.

Academic freedom and freedom of expression are key principles in the context of our campus learning and working environment, as highlighted by the fundamental commitment contained in Clause 10 of the policy, which is noted above. While these principles do not influence the prima facie assessment of the allegations or determine whether legal thresholds of discrimination or harassment have been met (at the complaint intake stage), they are considered carefully once there is a better understanding of the context through information gathering and finding of fact (at the investigation stage), and they may influence the remedy or sanction recommended in the event a breach of policy is found to have occurred (at the sanction and remedy stage). The practice of considering the university’s human rights commitments to freedom from discrimination and harassment and fundamental commitments to academic freedom and freedom of expression is informed by existing University statements or policies and applicable legislative guidance including precedent case law. This practice has not changed with the iterative updates in the Policy.

Senators may be interested in exploring McMaster’s website dedicated to freedom of expression. The website gathers in one place all of McMaster’s relevant policies and statements including the annual reports submitted to and reviewed by HEQCO (Higher Education Quality Council of Ontario) as required by the province.

Current Review of the Discrimination and Harassment Policy

The Discrimination and Harassment Policy is subject to 3-yearly reviews. Given that the last review was undertaken in 2019, a review will take place in 2022 and will be initiated shortly. Senators who are interested in participating or who have comments or suggestions are encouraged to email policy@mcmaster.ca.

RE: Proposal for Certificates of Professional Learning in Web Development and Design; Proposal for Diploma in Full-Stack Development

TO: Certificates & Diplomas Committee

I have reviewed the following program submissions presented by McMaster Continuing Education for the establishment of three Certificates of Professional Learning within the field of Web Development and Design. The specific program titles are as follows:

• Certificate of Professional Learning in User Experience/User Interface Design
• Certificate of Professional Learning in Front-End Development
• Certificate of Professional Learning in Back-End Development

I have determined that the proposed programs meet the criteria set out by the Undergraduate Council in its guidelines for certificates and diplomas. I, therefore, endorse these submissions with the support of the Faculty of Humanities.

At my request, these program proposals were reviewed by Dr. David Harris Smith. His conclusion is that the objectives of the proposed programs are viable. The courses included in each program fulfill the stated objectives, and the programs meet Undergraduate Council’s criteria for the designation of a Certificate of Professional Learning. I concur with Dr. Smith’s assessment.

I also agree with Dr. Smith’s assessment that students who successfully complete the three Certificates of Professional Learning qualify for a Diploma in Full-Stack Development through McMaster Continuing Education.

The Faculty of Humanities is pleased to have these high-quality programs available for individuals to meet their academic and professional goals. As the academic affiliate for the programs, the Faculty of Humanities recognizes that we provide both review expertise of the initial submissions and overview of ongoing curriculum issues. Additionally, we have provided McMaster Continuing Education with the guidelines their students will need for possible use of the advanced standing rules should they wish to enter our degree programs using credit from the completion of the above programs.

Sincerely,
Dr. Sean Corner
Associate Dean

RE: Evaluation of the Full-Stack Development Program Proposals for McMaster Continuing Education including Certificates of Professional Learning and Diploma

TO: Dr. Sean Corner, Associate Dean, Faculty of Humanities

At your request, I have reviewed the academic submission documents for the Certificates of Professional Learning in User Experience/User Interface Design, Front-End Development and Back-End Development to be offered through McMaster Continuing Education. I have examined the structure of each submission and the proposed course descriptions. My finding is that each course meets the standards necessary to be an academic course with 3.0 units of advanced credit value.

Based on my examination of the content as well as the teaching and testing methods proposed for each course, my assessment is that the intellectual rigour of the courses is comparable to that found in undergraduate degree courses. The academic submission documents also indicate that the courses will be taught by qualified individuals (possessing a Master’s degree or equivalency), as defined by the Undergraduate Council’s Certificate and Diploma requirements. The students taking the courses will meet the minimum requirements set out in the Senate’s Certificates and Diplomas Policy (2020) for Undergraduate Council.

I also support the option that, if a student successfully completes the three Certificates of Professional Learning, the student is eligible for a Diploma in Full-Stack Development.

Sincerely,

Dr. David Harris Smith

Academic Merit (complete all fields; write "not applicable" as needed):

Program Overview:
The proposed Back-End Development program is designed to prepare students with skills and knowledge to become back-end developers and full-stack developers for websites and online content. This program will provide more specialized training in the web development language JavaScript and an understanding of web databases and their relationship to websites, servers and API technology. This course will highlight the core competencies and skillsets that every back-end and full-stack development professional needs in today's workforce.

Learning Objectives:

1. Demonstrate how a server interacts with a database.
2. Develop expertise in JavaScript coding.
3. Demonstrate how to use API software.
4. Critically analyze the future of full-stack development through the lens of AWS and Shopify.
5. Demonstrate how to run queries from a back-end database.
6. Identify the role and tasks of a back-end developer as part of the website development process.
7. Understand what an API is and how it is incorporated into website design.
8. Apply web development principles to build functioning back-end code.

The following additional objectives will be threaded within each course:
- Demonstration of awareness of ethical practices and professional standards applicable to a field of employment and/or academic study.
• Exemplification of the knowledge, skills, attitudes and behaviours required to work and collaborate with people from different cultural backgrounds and to develop effective personal management skills.

Meeting Learning Objectives: All course learning outcomes in the program will be mapped to the overall program objectives. The delivery format and teaching methods are structured to have a maximum effect on achieving the learning objectives.

Program Admission Requirements and Pre-requisites In compliance with the Certificates and Diploma, admission policy from Undergraduate Council, students who wish to enter the program should meet the following requirements based on their education and work experience:

1. Be a mature student as defined in the Undergraduate Calendar of McMaster University; or be deemed an exceptional case by the Centre for Continuing Education
2. English Language Proficiency requirements: Completion of TOEFL exam with a minimum acceptable IBT score of 86 overall with a minimum score of 20 on each of the four components (Reading, Writing, Speaking, Listening), valid for 2 years
3. Completion of the Front-End Development Certificate of Professional Learning or equivalent is required.
4. Students are recommended to have completed the UX/UI Design Certificate of Professional Learning before the start of the program, but it is not required.

Program Completion Requirements: Students who complete all three Back-End Development courses (9 units) will be granted a Certificate of Professional Learning in Back-End Development.

Program Delivery Format: Courses will be delivered online. The online delivery formats will include instructor lectures and/or presentations, group discussions, and individual and/or small group practical application activities. Each course will contain 39 hours of content delivered over 12 weeks.

Student Evaluations (Grading Process): Student evaluation will be based on application activities, individual or group projects, tests/quizzes, class participation, or a combination thereof. Where appropriate, evaluations will be structured to evaluate participants’ level of competency in achieving overall learning objectives.

Course Evaluation: For each course, students will complete an evaluation to assess content, delivery, materials, method of evaluation and instruction.

Course Instruction: Instructors for courses will be selected from a pool of qualified external professionals. In compliance with McMaster’s Senate and Undergraduate Council Guidelines for Certificates and Diplomas, selection will be based on academic background and/or experience within the field. Instructors must have a Master’s Degree (or equivalent) and significant professional experience and teaching within the field.

Program Advanced Standing:
One transfer credit (3 units) will be accepted into this program. Students will need to have obtained a minimum grade of C+ in each course transferred. The courses must have been taken at a recognized post-secondary institution in the last 5 years.

Statement of Financial Viability:
I have reviewed the business case and financial projections which include enrolment projections and costs. Sources of revenue for this program include tuition and supplementary fees (MAPS). Expenses are typical and include significant upfront development and marketing costs, as well as typical ongoing delivery costs (such as payment of facilitators, honoraria for other guest facilitators, materials, advertising and administration).

Lorraine Carter, Director, McMaster Continuing Education

Statement of Administrative Responsibilities:

Statement of Faculty Alignment:
The staffing and systems infrastructure to support the following functions already exists within Continuing Education. Costs will be fully covered by tuition, except the first year of the program, when the startup will be subsidized by Continuing Education.

Continuing Education program responsibilities:
- budget development and monetary responsibilities
- program and course development
- course registrations/administration
- supervision of instructors to ensure all required policies and practices are adhered to and course are taught according to program requirements and standards
- Marketing and Promotions

The Faculty of Humanities will act as an academic liaison and is charged with the responsibility of ongoing academic review and assessment of the curriculum. The Faculty’s letter of support is included at the end of this document.

RATIONALE: 1.1 & 1.2: Effective, September 2022, the Honours Biochemistry program will be administered by the Faculty of Health Sciences. Initially, while the curriculum will not change substantively, the degree will be amended to the Hons B.H.Sc. Appropriate notifications will be included in the Faculty of Science section of the Calendar to ensure current Level 1 students, interested in applying to the program for September 2022, will be informed that the program will be available as both an Hons.B.Sc. and Hons.B.H.Sc. Students interested in the latter, will be directed to the Faculty of Health Sciences section of the Calendar for admission and program requirements. The existing Hons.B.Sc. Biochemistry program will be phased out, beginning September 2023. All in-course students currently enrolled in Level 2 or 3 will be given the option to remain in that program through to graduation or transfer to the Hons.B.H.Sc. program, effective September 2022. Final year students, scheduled to convocate in June 2022, will graduate with the Hons.B.Sc. degree at the Faculty of Science Convocation.
Over the next few years, the Hons.B.H.Sc. program will see a constructive alignment of the curriculum to better reflect the Faculty expertise and research, housed in the Faculty of Health Sciences.

RATIONALE: 1.3 & 1.4: Effective, September 2022, the Honours Biochemistry Biomedical Research Specialization and the Honours Biochemistry Biomedical Research Specialization Co-op programs will be administered by the Faculty of Health Sciences. Initially, while the curriculum will not change substantively, the degree will be amended to the Hons B.H.Sc.
Appropriate notifications will be included in the Faculty of Science section of the Calendar to ensure current Level 2 Biochemistry students, interested in applying or transferring to the program for September 2022, will be informed that the program will be available as both an Hons.B.Sc. and Hons.B.H.Sc. Students interested in the latter, will be directed to the Faculty of Health Sciences section of the Calendar for admission and program requirements. The existing Hons.B.Sc. Biochemistry Biomedical Research Specialization program will be phased out, beginning September 2023. All in-course students currently enrolled in Level 2 or 3 will be given the option to remain in that program through to graduation or transfer to the Hons.B.H.Sc. program, effective September 2022. Final year students, scheduled to convocate in June 2022, will graduate with the Hons.B.Sc. degree at the Faculty of Science Convocation.

Over the next few years, the Hons.B.H.Sc. Biochemistry Biomedical Research Specialization program will see a constructive alignment of the curriculum to better reflect the Faculty expertise and research, housed in the Faculty of Health Sciences. Effective, September 2023, the requirements of the Co-op program have been amended to include additions to the course list that are suitable for inclusion based on course content. Addition of required scientific writing course. This dedicated course recognizes the importance of equipping students with writing skills so they can succeed in their thesis research placements and future careers. Pending approval of the course that will be administered by the Biomedical Discovery and Commercialization Program Office. Relaxation of level IV BIOCHEM requirement to expand options for students. Maintaining the completion of any other level IV BIOCHEM course maintains rigour in the degree.

Justification 1.1: Introduction of a new core program version of the Honours Biology – Physiology Research Specialization program. This new program option in Physiology will provide flexibility for students who still want to focus their studies in Physiology but have no interest in pursuing applied research or lab intensive experiences. This model is functionally equivalent to the Honours Biology Research Specialization and Honours Biology Core programs. This new Honours Physiology program will initially be capped at 50 seats to ensure it is manageable given our current course offerings and their associated enrolment caps. Students in this program will be required to complete a minimum three units of experiential learning from a new experiential course list which will be added to all Biology core programs.

3.2 Honours Mathematics and Statistics - Mathematics Sub-Plan Co-op (B.Sc.)

Effective September 2023, this program will be renamed Honours Mathematics and Statistics – Mathematics Specialization Co-op (B.Sc.). Students who enrolled prior to September 2023 will be given the choice to remain in Honours Mathematics and Statistics – Mathematics Sub-plan Co-op or transfer into Honours Mathematics and Statistics – Mathematics Specialization Co-op.

Honours Mathematics and Statistics Co-op Programs

Co-op opportunities in Mathematics and Statistics are available in combination with the sub-plans. Enrolment in these programs is limited. Selection is based on academic achievement and an interview but requires, as a minimum, submission of the on-line application by the stated deadline, and completion of a Level II Honours Mathematics and Statistics program with a Grade Point Average of at least 5.0. Information about the program and the selection procedure may be obtained from Science Career and Cooperative Education.

Notes
1. These are five-level (year) co-op programs which include two eight-month work terms which must be spent in mathematics or statistics related placements.
2. Students must be registered in a full-load and take a full academic program as prescribed, by Level and Term.
3. Students are required to complete SCIENCE 2C00 prior to the Fall term of level III. Students are required to complete SCIENCE 3C00 before the first work placement. and are strongly recommended to complete SCIENCE 2C00 in Level II.

4. Students must satisfy a Scientific Computing requirement, by completing one of: COMPSCI 1MD3, DATASCI 2G03, MATH 1MP3, PHYSICS 2G03. It is recommended that students in Mathematics Sub-plan (Co-op) complete this requirement prior to their first work term.

Admission

Enrolment in this program is limited. Selection is based on academic achievement and an interview but requires, as a minimum, submission of the on-line application by the stated deadline, and completion of Level II Honours Mathematics and Statistics (Mathematics Sub-Plan) with a Grade Point Average of at least 5.0.

Justification 3.1: Co-op course changes allow for a cohort of Biochemistry students to enroll in career courses in parallel to students in Science but within their own course. Support for and tracking of these students will be facilitated by this.

3.2 Concurrent Certificate in Urban Studies and Planning (USP)
School of Earth, Environment & Society
The Concurrent Certificate in Urban Studies and Planning is administered by the School of Earth, Environment & Society (Faculty of Science) (formerly the School of Geography and Earth Sciences).
General Science Building, Room 206, ext. 23534
ugadmin@mcmaster.ca
The Concurrent Certificate in Urban Studies & Planning (USP) will provide students with an opportunity to develop expertise in the related fields of urban geography and urban planning.
Certificate Requirements
Any student in an undergraduate program at McMaster may declare the USP Certificate at the time of graduation providing they satisfy the following requirements.
Requirements
18 units total

FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES
SUMMARY OF MAJOR CURRICULUM CHANGES FOR 2022-2023

Below is the summary of substantive curriculum changes being proposed by the Faculty of Social Sciences. For complete review of all of the changes, please refer to the November 2021 Faculty of Social Sciences Report to Undergraduate Council for changes to the 2022-2023 Undergraduate Calendar, found at:
https://macdrive.mcmaster.ca/d/b8df016956f2453a8f78/

1.0 NEW PROGRAMS: N/A

2.0 PROGRAM CLOSURES:

3.0 MAJOR REVISIONS:

3.1 The School of Labour Studies is proposing that the Combined Honours. B.A., the Honours. B.A., the B.A. degrees and the minor have the name changed from “Labour Studies” to “Work and Labour Studies.” The details of this change are reflected in the full Faculty of Social Sciences Curriculum Report under Labour Studies at (2.1-2.4).

The program name changes are as follows:

Combined Honours Labour Studies and Another Subject (B.A.) to Combined Honours Work and Labour Studies and Another Subject (B.A.)
Honours Labour Studies (B.A.) to Honours Work and Labour Studies (B.A.)
Labour Studies (B.A.) to Work and Labour Studies (B.A.)
Minor in Labour Studies to Minor in Work and Labour Studies

Justification - The School of Labour Studies is proposing to rename their programs and the subject code for all of the courses. For many years, too many students - and parents – have clearly not known what "labour" means; many think the program is associated with midwifery. The name change reflects the focus of studies within the School of Labour Studies, and it will provide better context so that people will understand what we study. This is turn should help attract more students to the programs.

Summary and Revision Justifications
Office of the Registrar, November 2021

Housekeeping:
- Changes to dates/deadlines as they align with the application cycle
- Rewording/editing content for grammar, spelling, consistency and clarity
- Revisions to Registrar’s Office contact information and URLs
- Changes to submission process for documents (uploading vs. mailing for 105 applicants due to changes based on Slate system)
- Change of name of Studio Art I to iArts to align with new program name; revised alpha order

BC Applicant Requirements – Section 1B
- Changes to requirements for applicants from British Columbia – move from four (4) required Grade 12 courses to six (6). This aligns with other Canadian universities, and allows those applying to programs where there are four (4) required courses to benefit from having additional non-required courses in their average calculation.

Section 1E – Other International Secondary School Qualifications: American High School Curriculum
- For SAT/ACT admission requirements for Fall 2023, readers are being redirected to future.mcmaster.ca/admission/website for updated information as pertains to submitting exams results. For F2022 admission, exams could not be completed due to COVID; whether students are able to sit exams this summer for F2023 admission is not yet known.

Language Proficiency – Section 5
- English Language Proficiency (ELP)– adjustment to wording to reflect time frame in which to qualify to be exempt from the requirement to submit and ELP. Changed from ‘immediately prior to application to McMaster’ to ‘immediately prior to anticipated start at McMaster’. This change aligns with how the ELP requirement is assessed and assigned in our system and has been past practice.

Application Procedures (See attached, page 15)
- Changes to dates/deadlines as they align with the new application cycle
- Rewording/editing content for grammar, spelling, consistency and clarity
- Revisions to Registrar’s Office contact information and URLs
- Changes to submission process for documents (uploading vs. mailing for 105 applicants due to changes based on Slate system)
- Section 1E- Nursing Consortium Programs- updated with directions for the two applicant groups (101s and 105s)
- Section 3-- Application and Documentation Deadlines Fall and Winter Terms chart updated to include:
  o Addition of Engineering disciplines above Level 1 now requiring a supplementary application o BTech Degree Completion (Above Level 1) – addition of different term application and document deadlines o Nursing Post Diploma RPN stream information.

General Academic Regulations (See attached, page 20)
- Revision to calculation used for a student to be named to Dean’s Honour List and Provost’s Honour List to allow students to with a minimum of 30 units since the last review and a minimum of 24 graded units to be assessed for Honours (DHL, PHL) regardless of the number of non-graded units (i.e. pass/fail, complete/not complete, etc.).
Admission Requirements

1. Admission from Secondary Schools

All Level I programs have enrollment limits and admission is by selection.

A. Ontario

General Requirements (For all Level I Programs)

To be considered for admission, you, as an applicant, must satisfy the general requirements of the university and the specific subject requirements for the program to which you applied, plus any specified supplementary application/on-line assessment/audition/portfolio required by some programs at the university.

If you are an applicant from an Ontario secondary school, you must meet the following minimum requirements:

1. An Ontario Secondary School Diploma (OSSD) with acceptable standing; AND
2. An overall average in completed Grade 12 U and/or M courses which meets or exceeds the minimum set by the specific program to which you applied; AND
3. Satisfactory completion of six Grade 12 U and/or M courses including the subject requirements for your chosen program.

Note: Co-op courses are not included in any admission or final admission average calculations. Music External (Conservatory) 4M is acceptable as a credit and the mark obtained can be included in the calculation of your admission average. Alternatively, you may submit certificates from a recognized conservatory of music in Grade 8 practical and Grade 2 theory to your secondary school for one Grade 12M credit.

Admission Average Range

The Admission Average Range used to determine eligibility for consideration is calculated using the best six Grade 12 U and/or M grades, including all required subjects. McMaster calculates averages to two decimal points and does not round up averages. Please Note: Grade 12 Co-op courses are not eligible to be used as one of the required prerequisite courses used to calculate admissibility and/or the admission average. See Early Conditional Admission and Final Admission below for specific details. Estimated admission average ranges for our Level I Programs can be found at: http://future.mcmaster.ca under and select Admission Requirements.

Early Conditional Admission

Early conditional admission may be granted annually to qualified applicants with strong academic standing. Early conditional admission is based on:

1. six appropriate midterm/interim Grade 12 U and/or M grades, OR
2. at least three final Grade 12 U and/or M grades PLUS enrollment in the appropriate additional three Grade 12 U and/or M courses.
3. In some cases, Grade 11 marks may be considered in extending early conditional offers of admission.

If you do not meet the minimum average prescribed for your chosen program required by some programs at the university, you may be able to extend your conditional offer of admission due to any of the following:

1. You do not meet the minimum average prescribed for your chosen program required by some programs at the university.
2. You do not meet the OSSD requirements; OR
3. You do not complete six Grade 12 U and/or M courses which meets or exceeds the minimum set by the specific program required by some programs at the university.
4. You do not complete six Grade 12 U and/or M courses which meets or exceeds the minimum set by the specific program.
5. You do not meet the specific subject requirements for your chosen program specified in the application/audition/portfolio.
6. You do not meet any other conditions stipulated on your conditional offer of admission.
7. You are not eligible for admission due to any of the following:
   - You are not eligible for admission due to any of the following:
     - You do not meet the minimum average prescribed for your chosen program required by some programs at the university.
     - You do not meet the OSSD requirements; OR
     - You do not complete six Grade 12 U and/or M courses which meets or exceeds the minimum set by the specific program required by some programs at the university.
     - You do not meet the specific subject requirements for your chosen program specified in the application/audition/portfolio.

Minimum Final Average

The University reserves the right to withdraw a conditional offer of admission due to any of the following:

1. If you are a Secondary school applicant, who receives a conditional offer of admission, you will be required to achieve an overall average (calculated to two decimal points) on six (6) final grades including all program specific required courses, for your desired program. This information is as indicated on your offer of conditional offers of admission.
2. If you are an applicant’s final average falls below the level (or its equivalent), you lose the offer of admission will be rescinded/revoked and your registration will be cancelled.

The required minimum final average will vary from year to year and by program. This average will be clearly stated on the offer of conditional admission letter.

Supplementary Application Forms and Extenuating Circumstances

4. Transfer Credits

A. General Policy on the Transfer of University Course Credits

To facilitate program completion by undergraduate students seeking to transfer course credit from an accredited university to McMaster, the University has implemented the following principles:

1. Acceptance of transfer credits from accredited universities shall be based on the recognition that, while learning experiences may differ in a variety of ways, their substance may be essentially equivalent in terms of their content and rigour. Insofar as possible, acceptance of transfer credit shall allow for the maximum recognition of previous learning experience in university-level courses;

2. Subject to degree, grade and program requirements, any course offered for credit by an accredited university shall be accepted for credit by McMaster when there is an essential equivalency in course content. However, no course for which a grade of less than C- (60%) has been achieved will be considered.

3. Evaluation of all possible transfer credits available at the time of admission must be completed within one year of the date of admission to the University.

B. From Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology

Normally, if you are a well-qualified graduate of a three-year program and where the college work is appropriate to you're chosen university program, you could receive up to 30 units of transfer credit. If you have completed a Graduate Diploma of two-year programs, you could receive up to 12 units of transfer credit. Credit beyond this may be given on an individual basis where the college and university programs are in similar areas, and where your academic record warrants special consideration.

In the granting of credit, attention will be given to:
C. Advanced Credit

Subject to the discretion of the Faculty, advanced credit may be granted if you have completed the International Baccalaureate (I.B.) Diploma; the Advanced Placement (A.P.) D. Credit in Courses by Special Assessment (Challenge Examinations)

Students who have acquired knowledge at a different type of institution or in a manner that makes assessment of their qualifications difficult are permitted to seek degree credit through special assessment (Challenge for Credit).

Challenge for credit is not intended to give credit for skills or knowledge gained through high school, college or previous university instruction. The special assessment may include one or more of the following: written examinations, papers, essays, submissions of a substantial body of work, or portfolios, or laboratory tests. Credit can be granted only for those courses listed in the current McMaster calendar. Not all courses in all disciplines are available for challenge. Faculties and departments are free to determine which, if any, of their courses are open for special assessment. Challenges are assessed on a pass/fail basis. The passing grade for a challenge appears on the transcript as COM (Complete) and is not used in computing averages or evaluating honours or scholarship standing, but is counted as a course attempt. Unsuccessful attempts will be noted on the transcript as a grade of F. Special Assessment is not available for a course taken previously and a course may be attempted only once by special assessment. Once you have registered for a course by such means (known as challenge exams) the registration may not be cancelled and you may not withdraw from the course.

Waivers of prerequisites only (ie. no degree credit) will be at the discretion of the department.

5. English Language Proficiency

If you have been asked to meet the English Language Proficiency requirement, you must demonstrate English language proficiency by achieving the minimum requirements as specified by McMaster. The university reserves the right to require applicants with an English Language Proficiency score disparate from their English prerequisite subject grade to present further evidence of achievement. You may review acceptable tests of English Language Proficiency and minimum score requirements on our website (https://future.mcmaster.ca/english-proficiency). It is your responsibility to make all arrangements regarding the writing of the English Language Proficiency tests and to have the official score report submitted to the Office of the Registrar, Admissions in a timely manner. At the discretion of the university, you may be exempted from this requirement if you meet one of the following requirements:

i. Attended immediately prior to application to McMaster, in full-time academic studies (non-ESL), an accredited Secondary School (High School) or Post-Secondary College in an English-speaking country for at least four years immediately prior to your anticipated start date at McMaster.

McMaster English Language Development Diploma (MELD)
The McMaster English Readiness for Graduate Excellence (MERGE) program goes beyond essential training in speaking, listening, reading, and writing. It has been designed to support the development of these skills from the point of view of both cultural understanding and practical implementation, with an emphasis on teaching and practising the language skills needed to be successful in each domain. The six modules are:

- Module 1 - General social interactions: conventions and strategies for everyday social encounters students face
- Module 2 - Academic feedback and critique: the role of critique in academia along with tools for both giving and receiving feedback, or peer review
- Module 3 - Academic reasoning: identifying, understanding, and summarizing arguments and evaluating supporting evidence in both reading and listening
- Module 4 - Academic interactions: navigating relationships with supervisors, teams, and other faculty in person, through email, at conferences, and in seminars
- Module 5 - Career preparation: best practices for CVs/resumes, job interviews, elevator pitches, and online brand building
- Module 6 - Teaching: principles of effective teaching including developing lessons, interacting with students, and grading

Students who meet the academic admission requirements for their choice of Level 1 program, but do not meet McMaster's English Language Proficiency requirement may be admitted to the MELD bridging program which has been developed for international students, providing them with a supportive environment in which they can succeed. The diploma is a two-term, full-time intensive bridging program in English language development, acculturation and engagement.

Students accepted into MELD are given a conditional offer of admission to their program of choice, pending successful completion of the MELD diploma. Once the diploma in MELD has been successfully completed, the student may register in the program to which the student was given conditional admission and will have completed 6 units of degree credit courses in Linguistics that may be applied as electives to that program. In exceptional circumstances, MELD will consider transfers from other McMaster programs.

McMaster English Readiness for Graduate Excellence Certificate

MERGE (the McMaster English Readiness for Graduate Excellence Certificate) is an intensive six-week summer certificate program for current or prospective graduate students from any institution who are looking to improve their English-language skills. The MERGE program offers over 200 hours of language training, 35 hours per week. Admission requirements include successful completion of an undergraduate degree and English language proficiency minimum requirements of TOEFL IBT 90 or IELTS 6.5 (with minimum category requirements). Target English proficiency upon program completion will be an iELTS score of 7-7.5 or Common European Framework Reference for Languages (CEFR) level C2.1. in keeping with graduate English proficiency admission requirements.

The MERGE program goes beyond essential training in speaking, listening, reading, and writing. It has been designed to support the integration of these skills as applied to real world contexts students will encounter during graduate school and beyond. The MERGE certificate does not require current or conditional admission to a McMaster University graduate program and program completion does not guarantee admission to a graduate program of study in and of itself. As a stand-alone program, the MERGE certificate coursework cannot be utilized for advanced standing or credit towards degree studies.

Certificate Requirements
Each of the program's six weeks will be divided into modules that will focus on a different set of skills. These modules will approach the development of these skills from the point of view of both cultural understanding and practical implementation, with an emphasis on teaching and practising the language skills needed to be successful in each domain. The six modules are:

- Module 1 - General social interactions: conventions and strategies for everyday social encounters students face
- Module 2 - Academic feedback and critique: the role of critique in academia along with tools for both giving and receiving feedback, or peer review

A. Background:

i. What events led to this proposal for a new Centre/Institute?

First established in 2014 as the McMaster Institute of Geroscience, the McMaster Institute for Research on Aging (MIRA) was created in 2016 and supported by a generous $5 million donation from Suzanne Labarge, a McMaster graduate, past chancellor and esteemed university champion and friend. Suzanne shares MIRA’s commitment to evidence-based research focused on health and well-being and has provided support in championing the creation of the Labarge Centre for Mobility in Aging, the Labarge Optimal Aging Initiative, the McMaster Optimal Aging Portal, the McMaster Institute for Research on Aging and the establishment of the Raymond and Margaret Labarge Chair in Research and Knowledge Application for Optimal Aging. MIRA grew out of recognition that the best way to tackle the complex issues facing an aging population was as an organized, interdisciplinary team that integrates the perspectives of older adults, caregivers, stakeholders, and knowledge users into research efforts.

In addition to her philanthropic activities at McMaster University, Suzanne Labarge has invested in Toronto’s Dixon Hall with annual contributions to assist with technology upgrades in the Seniors’ Department. Since 1929, Dixon Hall has been a resource for older adults living in Regent Park, Moss Park, St. James Town, and other downtown east Toronto neighbourhoods. Dixon Hall’s goal is to assist older adults in living independent and healthy lives and offer a range of programs and services to help ensure that older adults and adults living with a disability or illness can continue to live at home and be engaged in the community for as long as possible. Dixon Hall provides crucial programming and services to isolated, marginalized and at-risk people in Toronto’s Downtown East and is an established, well-recognized entity celebrated for a commitment to comprehensive client care. In part, the depth, continuity, and consistency of the services it provides are enabled through robust partnerships and long-established relationships: The seniors’ department is funded by the Province of Ontario (Ontario Health Teams), the City of Toronto – Community Service Partnerships, the United Way, the Ministry for Seniors and Accessibility, as well as by individual, foundation, and corporate donors. Dixon Hall’s efforts are also empowered by its history. Dixon Hall’s history and ability to address the needs of older adults who live within this community are key components to its effectiveness. Dixon Hall’sSeniors’ Services Department is well connected and has partnerships with Toronto Ride, and Home At Last, which include: Reconnect, WoodGreen, SPRINT Senior Care, West Neighbourhood House, Storefront Humber, the Neighbourhood Group, West Toronto Support Services, Les Centres d’Accueil Heritage, and is also involved with the following partners/organizations: Progress Place (Seniors Mental Health Day Program in St. James Town partner), Hospice Toronto (Seniors Mental Health Day Program in St. James Town partner), Fred Victor, Central Neighbourhood House, Sherbourne Health, The Neighbourhood Organization (TNO), Toronto Community Housing, St. James Town Community Corner, St. Michael’s Hospital, Neighbourhood Information Post, Regent Park Community Health Centre, Yonge Street Mission, and Health Commons Solutions Lab-Sinai Health. Dixon Hall also has a strong presence and engagement at relevant not-for-profit network tables and in dialogues taking place at all levels of government. Yet, financial constraints have necessarily limited Dixon Hall’s activities, growth areas, research, effective use of data, and capacity for engagement in broader policy and advocacy work.

Recognizing MIRA’s expertise in aging and mobility research and the potential to extend this expertise beyond the borders of McMaster University and Hamilton, in April 2021, Suzanne Labarge invested $5 million to enable a new partnership between MIRA and Dixon Hall, a service centre offering crucial programming and services to isolated, marginalized and at-risk people in Toronto’s Downtown East. Bridging the gap between the academic and the practical, the McMaster Institute for Research on Aging | Dixon Hall Centre promises access to unique insights from diverse populations and research opportunities that neither organization could provide alone. MIRA and Dixon Hall are proposing to capitalize on each other’s considerable strengths to forge a new partnership that will undoubtedly improve the lives of at-risk older adults: members of our community who have been profoundly affected by the complexities of coping with the extraordinary circumstances in which we all find ourselves only two decades into the 21st century. At-risk seniors can only benefit from access to supports and technology that can help them feel more connected and engaged with their community as they age in place at home. This collaboration will primarily focus on a group that is not often seen or heard – seniors who are low-income, homeless, or precariously housed, or facing multiple challenges to mobility, health, and other social barriers. Our aim is to improve their quality of life and enable them to live with dignity through purposeful initiatives planned over both the short- and long term.
How do those events relate to academic/research priorities?

We propose to establish both a virtual and, eventually, a physical centre at Dixon Hall in Toronto that will further cement McMaster’s position as a national leader in research on optimal aging and mobility and enriching the experience for almost 2,000 seniors who access Dixon Hall programming and supports on a yearly basis. This centre will build direct links to McMaster expertise and increase capacity for knowledge dissemination to increase broad awareness of the importance of mobility for the well-being of older adults. It will enable researchers to quickly identify issues and questions of importance to all stakeholders. Opportunities will be augmented to pursue target areas for training, research, and knowledge translation around the topic of mobility and aging. The partnership will also provide a rich learning environment in the science of aging and will enable our experts from MIRA and Dixon Hall to create novel educational initiatives and knowledge translation and dissemination opportunities that will benefit Dixon Hall, MIRA trainees, and members of the general public. With a physical presence in Toronto and access to superb online resources such as the Optimal Aging Portal (OAP) at McMaster, opportunities to enhance public outreach initiatives will grow. This centre will foster collaborations with researchers that will include community members and stakeholders such as those in the housing and transportation industries as well as government and policymakers. Collaborations between MIRA and Dixon Hall will also allow isolated, marginalized, and at-risk older adults the opportunity to actively participate in all aspects of research, from the formulation of research questions through to knowledge translation and dissemination. MIRA and Dixon Hall have numerous areas of shared capacity and priorities. These areas of alignment inform the following research themes:

Facilitating technology use and access
Technology has the capacity to promote mobility, connection, and healthy aging, but inequities and lack of access can serve to further widen the gap between older adults who are doing well and those who are not. Research platforms and other assets, including the developing Technology Hub at Dixon Hall, McMaster’s Institute for Music and the Mind (MIMM), and the numerous MIRA researchers engaged in understanding how older adults interact with, and use technology, will facilitate the pursuit of research questions and initiatives related to technology, aging, and equity. The McMaster Optimal Aging Portal, a digital platform that enables older adults and care providers to access plain language evidence summaries of relevant topics, can be further facilitated, evaluated, and explored through Dixon Hall’s Technology Hub. Current intergenerational initiatives (e.g., Symbiosis, Timeless, and Dixon Hall’s youth programming) provide further opportunity to explore intergenerational interventions in navigating digital tools and platforms.

Housing and aging in place
The Greater Toronto Housing Authority (GTHA) experiences a simultaneous housing shortage and challenges related to health, mobility and social isolation as many older adults struggle to age in place. Innovative approaches are needed to meet the housing needs of an aging population. Dixon Hall’s deep capacity for supporting older adults facing housing insecurity is well complemented by McMaster’s engagement in housing research and aging in place initiatives, including the CRUNCH (Collaboratory for Research on Urban Neighbourhoods, Community Health and Housing) Lab, engaged in work in both Hamilton and Toronto; the McMaster Smart Home, a test facility for technologies enabling older adults to age in place; and, Health TAPESTRY (Health Teams Advancing Patient Experience: Strengthening Quality), which has currently scaled up from its pilot sites in Hamilton to include additional intervention sites in Niagara-on-the-Lake, Windsor, Harrow, Sault Ste. Marie, and Dufferin County.

Transportation mobility
Transportation is a key element to older adults’ health, mobility and meaningful participation in community and society. Population aging will demand research and initiatives focused on understanding and reducing barriers to transportation, including those relating to declining physical mobility, driving cessation, and the costs and limitations of public transit. Dixon Hall’s existing partnerships and initiatives (Toronto Ride, SPRINT Senior Care) provide key opportunities to apply MIRA’s research capacity, exemplified through platforms such as the McMaster Institute for Transportation Logistics (MITL), and projects including the McMaster Monitoring My Mobility (MacM3) project, the Candrive study, and several Labarge Centre for Mobility in Aging-funded projects on driving, transit, and active transport led by researchers in the social sciences, geography, civil engineering, and rehabilitation science.
Transitions in care and end of life
As older adults experience changes in health and mobility, increasing demands will be placed on transitions in care, including those from hospital to home and to other forms of supported living in the community. Understanding the best practices and policies around these transitions, as well as those associated with end-of-life, can be advanced through Dixon Hall’s ongoing work with the Local Health Integration Networks and developing Ontario Health Teams, Hospice Toronto, Sherbourne Health and others, as well as McMaster’s research relationships and initiatives with the THRIVE Group, St. Joseph’s Villa and its hospice, Margaret’s Place, and the dementia care support platform iGeriCare.

Participation and mobility
Participation in the community and reducing social isolation are key elements of mobility that both MIRA and Dixon Hall identify as priorities. As Dixon Hall connects 1,500 – 2,000 older adults annually to service providers and community programming, its seniors’ department is poised to link community members to innovative, evidence-based approaches facilitating participation and connectedness. Several of MIRA’s current programs of research, including the community codesigned EMBOLDEN trial, the ABLE arts-based mobility therapy platform, and GERAS Dance program, seek to promote social and community mobility among their key aims.

To achieve the overall objectives for the McMaster Institute for Research on Aging | Dixon Hall Centre, we propose several mechanisms to conduct research, support community engagement and promote knowledge translation, including but not limited to:
- Facilitating ongoing access to the McMaster Optimal Aging Portal through Dixon Hall’s Technology Hub, and evaluating its usability and impact in this population;
- Community initiatives and events to engage Dixon Hall clients, community members, partners, and the wider aging community in Toronto;
- Research and data analysis to better understand current Dixon Hall clients, caregivers, and program use;
- Building capacity in Dixon Hall’s work with low-income, precariously housed seniors;
- Identifying service gaps or research topics as determined by the evaluation of Dixon Hall’s or partner organizations’ program outcomes and trends;
- An inner-city longitudinal cohort study, leveraging MIRA experience and assets, including the Canadian Longitudinal Study on Aging (CLSA);
- Expansion of Labarge Centre for Mobility in Aging-funded multi-year major research programs, Community-based Program to Enhance Physical and Community Mobility in Older Adults (EMBOLDEN) and the McMaster Monitoring my Mobility (MacM3) research platform;
- Expansion of MIRA member-led projects including Arts-based Therapies Enabling Longevity for Geriatric Outpatients (ABLE), Health Teams Advancing Patient Experience: Strengthening Quality (TAPESTRY), Geriatric Education and Research in Aging Sciences Centre (GERAS) Dance, and the online dementia education program iGeriCare;
- Systematic reviews of older adult programming within and beyond Canada, leading to potential evidence-based demonstration projects;
- Intergenerational technology accessibility initiative, linking MIRA trainees and older and younger Dixon Hall users.

iii. How will creating this Centre/Institute improve and enhance research that will address these priorities?

The McMaster Institute for Research on Aging | Dixon Hall Centre will build direct links to McMaster expertise in academic research and knowledge translation and increase capacity for broad awareness of the importance of mobility for the well-being of older adults. Opportunities will be augmented to pursue target areas for training, research, and knowledge translation around mobility and aging while also focusing on groups that are not often seen or heard – urban, older Canadians who may be low-income, homeless, or precariously housed, to mobility, health, and other social barriers or are facing more complex challenges or concurrent disorders. Our aim is to improve the quality of life for these older adults and enable them to live with dignity through purposeful initiatives planned over both the short- and long term.

Combining the lived experience of the experts at Dixon Hall, with research expertise of academics at MIRA, will allow researchers to quickly identify issues and questions of importance to all stakeholders. With a physical presence in Toronto... and access to superb online resources such as the Optimal Aging Portal (OAP) at McMaster, the centre will have greater opportunities to enhance public outreach initiatives. This new centre will foster collaborations with researchers that will include community members and stakeholders such as those in the housing and transportation industries as well as government and policymakers.

The partnership will also provide a rich learning environment in the science of aging and will enable our experts from MIRA to create novel educational and funding initiatives together with Dixon Hall. MIRA will work together with Dixon Hall to establish research opportunities with existing datasets and to identify research and knowledge gaps that could be addressed through this new partnership. The McMaster Institute for Research on Aging | Dixon Hall Centre will capitalize on this activity by leveraging the platforms, research strengths and existing research and educational initiatives in which MIRA and the Labarge Centre for Mobility in Aging have collectively participated, and data that has already been collected at Dixon Hall, while providing experienced leadership in community-engaged initiatives serving older adults in Toronto.

The COVID-19 pandemic has presented us with new opportunities and challenges and MIRA has pivoted to enhancing linkages with Dixon Hall via technology to establish a virtual centre. For Dixon Hall, COVID-19 has presented a new reality and highlighted heightened challenges for many of its clients, and for its role as a multi-service agency. Certainly, the pandemic has highlighted those at-risk older adults can benefit from access to supports and technology that can help them feel more connected and engaged with their community as they live at home, and has the capacity to promote mobility, connection, and healthy aging. However, inequities and lack of access to technology and supports can widen the gap between older adults who are doing well and older adults who are not thriving.

With MIRA as a partner, however, these challenges can be analyzed to create promising opportunities for collaborative community work. There is an urgency to consider the pandemic-specific issues facing many of Dixon Hall’s clientele, and the exploration of these challenges will inform future areas of inquiry and help to inform decisions on current and future program design for the populations accessing services at Dixon Hall. This collaboration will focus on short-term collaborative projects leveraging existing projects and technology; long-term collaborative projects, using established infrastructures and frameworks to implement interdisciplinary community-based projects that support research in social and physical mobility utilizing technology and co-design techniques; and leveraging McMaster aging-related research platforms to support research in aging in these populations.

B. Objectives and Proposed Activities:

i. Objectives

Impact on key stakeholders

The McMaster Institute for Research on Aging | Dixon Hall Centre aims to improve the quality of life for Dixon Hall clientele and enable them to live with dignity through purposeful initiatives planned over both the short- and long term. These will include the implementation of a digital platform that enables older adults and care providers to access plain language evidence summaries of relevant topics, exploration of intergenerational initiatives to promote connection and reduce feelings of loneliness and isolation, and access to programs of research that facilitate participation and connectedness. This would include the community codesigned EMBOLDEN trial, the ABLE arts-based mobility therapy platform, and GERAS Dance program, all of which seek to promote social and community mobility. Dixon Hall clientele will also benefit from knowledge translation events and community initiatives aiming to engage Dixon Hall clients, community members, partners, and the wider aging community in Toronto. Given MIRA’s dedication to inclusion of key stakeholders in research program creation and execution, community members can also be engaged in the design process, conceptualization, and execution of novel research programs and dissemination of knowledge products following successful conclusions of research programs.

The impact on Dixon Hall will include the opportunity for program evaluation to identify efficacy and impact of services currently provided, collaboration in novel educational and funding opportunities, and the ability to steer the research agenda to help identify and create programs and services to support underserviced older adults.
Partners involved with Dixon Hall, including Meals on Wheels may also benefit from access to program evaluation tools and access to experts and evidence-based tools to inform decision making.

Government agencies including the Province of Ontario (Ontario Health Teams), the City of Toronto – Community Service Partnerships, the United Way, the Ministry for Seniors and Accessibility, and individual, foundation, and corporate donors involved with Dixon Hall would also benefit from receiving detailed information about how programs at Dixon Hall impact on the community, as well as receiving insights into service gaps that may be uncovered as a result of research occurring within the McMaster Institute for Research on Aging | Dixon Hall Centre.

Potential for collaboration

The McMaster Institute for Research on Aging | Dixon Hall Centre aims to include key stakeholders in research program creation and execution through the opportunity to be engaged in the design process, conceptualization and execution of novel research programs and dissemination of knowledge products following successful conclusions of research programs.

Innovative approaches are also needed to support older adults facing housing insecurity and barriers to transportation and transitions in care such as hospital-to-home, and end-of-life care. Participation in the community and reducing social isolation are also key elements to mobility that both MIRA and Dixon Hall identify as shared research themes.

Dixon Hall leaders have significant capacity as knowledge brokers who can mobilize information generated by MIRA with older adults and their caregivers, relevant support networks and service-provider organizations, and engaged funders and other partners. For example, Dixon Hall is an anchor agency for the United Way and has deep and long-standing connections with existing board members and other agencies and organizations that could both contribute to and benefit from this work. There is an opportunity for a McMaster-Dixon Hall partnership to build a collaborative platform that can mobilize other community-based organizations at the regional and national level.

We would also propose collaborating on implementing evidenced-based community demonstration projects and strengthening MIRA’s work with stakeholders that support aging research by engaging them in project specific advisory boards, MIRA’s governance committees and review panels.

Exploring opportunities for co-authored or co-presented research, with findings to be shared both in academic dialogues and through Dixon Hall’s communication channels and networks would also be a priority.

Currently, Dixon Hall has limited capacity for data collection. This new partnership would enable more collaborative work on data analysis and program evaluation to both enhance Dixon Hall’s program offerings, assist in identifying service gaps and improve data collection and management. This would include population-specific work and the consideration of gaps in services provided for at-risk groups, including homeless or precarious housed older adults and low-income older adults. Working together would also enable MIRA researchers and Dixon Hall leaders to identify new research topics and enhance Dixon Hall’s mandate by mapping onto the priorities of MIRA and the Labarge Centre for Mobility in Aging.

Proposed Activities

Research Projects

One of the aging-related research platforms at McMaster is the Canadian Longitudinal Study on Aging (CLSA). Data and biological samples from the CLSA provide McMaster researchers with one-of-a-kind opportunities to develop high-impact, targeted research agendas that answer critical questions by integrating the perspectives of a variety of disciplines.

a) Short-term collaborative projects (Year 1)
Dixon Hall and MIRA have existing connections and technology to collaborate on the following initiatives:
Collecting data on COVID-19 experiences and impact on health and wellbeing of Dixon Hall clientele. Relying upon resources and support provided by MIRA, Dixon Hall has collaborated with Dr. Andrea to collect measures examining the impact of COVID-19 on the physical and mental health of individuals. Part of the data for this study was collected through the MIRA | Dixon Hall Centre and includes Dixon Hall clients and findings are currently being analyzed and evaluated. Thorough consideration of topics in this questionnaire that include health, mobility, technology, access to housing and community support, will enable Dixon Hall to enhance their understanding of clients’ experiences and needs at this time. In turn, this will help Dixon Hall to prepare for potential future events.

Engagement in providing access and share the most appropriate up-to-date and evidence-based resources using the McMaster Optimal Aging Portal for improving the well-being of older Ontarians and their families. This collaboration will develop and provide standardized training for staff and volunteers who work with service providers and programs on how to use the Portal and integration into existing programs at Dixon Hall enabling the provision to clients of more multi-faceted supports. This would also build Dixon Hall’s capacity by helping to ensure utilization of best practices and offering the most current research-based resources and programs to its clients. In turn, MIRA’s access to the Dixon Hall client base can help bolster the number and diversity of clients engaging potential service provision projects.

A robust exploration and observational study of the impact of technology and connectedness on Dixon Hall clients. This work can begin with a consideration of what has been witnessed during the pandemic – clients experiencing heightened levels of isolation because of either a lack of access to technology or a lack of understanding about how to properly use technology. Together, we can then consider the next best steps. Dixon Hall will work to build and expand the Technology Hub that is being facilitated by a gift from Suzanne Labarge. Given current circumstances, Dixon Hall will consider revising the timeline or even the approach to facilitating either a fixed- or portable-use library of laptops, tablets, etc. for client use. This could be on-site, should health circumstances permit a return to day programs, or off-site should the public health restrictions due to the pandemic persist, or in cases of clients unable to attend in person. This new partnership will enable this resource to be developed with an evidence-based approach leading to enhanced service for the clients of Dixon Hall, and ultimately, facilitate the exploration and access to more areas in the future. Moreover, the building of a Technology Hub in concert with MIRA could support MIRA’s advancement of technology as a policy tool to reduce inequity and create a meaningful link for MIRA to the McMaster Digital Transformation Research Centre (MDTRC). Through multidisciplinary studies and insight, the MDTRC seeks to investigate and understand the impact of the changes brought about by technological and digital innovation on individuals, groups, and organizations.

b) Longer-term collaborative projects (Year 1 and onward)

MIRA has funded two major interdisciplinary community-based projects that will be conducted in the Hamilton region: McMaster Monitoring My Mobility (MacM3), and the Enhancing physical and community Mobility in OLDER adults with health inequalities using communNity co-design (EMBOLDEN) trial. These projects are funded, designed and ready for implementation. They are described below in their current form with participants expected to be enrolled within the Hamilton area. However, we propose to expand these projects to include communities served by Dixon Hall. Based on Dixon Hall’s priority areas and through dialogue and collaboration, these projects will be tailored using a co-design approach and incorporated into the Regent Park area. For example, Dixon Hall and its partner organizations may be host sites for sub-projects or components of the projects and collaborate in participant enrollment or share insight on the mobility needs of their communities. In addition, community members may choose to become project participants or share lived experience in other ways such as in advisory groups. These types of activities could amplify the scope of these research projects and expand the findings to a range of diverse communities. In turn, project information can support program development in Toronto’s communities. Overall, this will integrate research within the mandate and operations of Dixon Hall and further support the development of a local research milieu that attracts research and policy experts to engage with and become involved in the exciting research developments occurring at Dixon Hall. Briefly:

- Challenges with mobility such as difficulty with walking or getting into and out of a car are common in older adulthood and can negatively impact health and social functioning. The MacM3 project will use advanced wearable technologies to understand how mobility changes over time and how this affects health outcomes in older adults. Informed by preliminary research activities to customize activity tracking devices (i.e., wearable technology), each participant in this project will be provided with a wearable device for defined periods over a 2-year span to monitor a variety of mobility measures as they move within their home and in their community.
the same time, health information will be captured periodically through in-person or phone interviews. These data will be used to identify unique trajectories of mobility for differing levels of mobility challenges and health outcomes. Finally, with input from older adults and caregivers and findings from this research, a self-monitoring mobility tool will be designed to track and manage mobility and health that, ultimately, may prevent or delay mobility problems in later life. Throughout the span of this research, a number of smaller activities will be integral to its success and these include investigating and validating currently available wearable technology for older adults; stakeholder engagement planning, which will involve consultations with older adults, community organizations, clinicians, policy makers, caregivers, and industry; and, the establishment of community ‘pop-ups’ – temporary data collection sites – in shared spaces such as the YMCA, YWCA, or public library. Certainly, MacM3 offers many opportunities for collaboration with Dixon Hall, its partners, and community members throughout the span of the project.

• The EMBOLDEN trial is a co-designed intervention that aims to advance the social and physical mobility of older adults that live in communities of high health inequity in Hamilton. The ability to participate, at will, in social interactions and to be physically mobile is important to maintaining health-related quality of life in older adults (55 years and older). Many adults, however, face barriers in accessing community programs that have the potential to ameliorate the effects of increased social isolation and reduced physical mobility. A co-design approach facilitates cooperation and the exchange of ideas between researchers, stakeholders, and the intended program recipients. The idea of the co-design technique is to identify gaps in service, and to develop unique programs that leverage and align with current community programming to meet the needs of individuals. This approach would be equally suited for implementation with Dixon Hall and its community. Specifically, the program will engage existing best practices and supports in the local community to improve mobility and health through social support, nutrition, physical activity, and system navigation, and strengthen connections with existing support services. The co-designed program will then undergo vigorous empirical evaluation of its implementation and efficacy for meeting the needs of older adults living in the community. The long-term goal of the program is to design interventions and services that can be adapted for implementation in other communities throughout Canada.

• MIRA is also developing a third program of research to address intergenerational issues related to aging. This project The Intergenerational and Life Course Cohort and Intervention Research Platform (iGEN) will be a larger examination of intergenerational research across communities in Hamilton and in communities in Toronto served by Dixon Hall. The specific themes for which we will solicit research proposals will be jointly identified by MIRA, Dixon Hall, and relevant stakeholders. These calls will be like MIRA’s existing Catalyst Grant calls.

The implementation of these directed projects will be tailored to the Dixon Hall communities using a co-design approach. Integral to the creation of the McMaster Institute for Research on Aging - Dixon Hall partnership is McMaster’s culture of collaboration as expressed clearly by researchers from diverse fields of study such as social sciences, biology, psychology, engineering, business, and health sciences who continually work together to promote healthy and functional aging. This expertise combined with unparalleled existing platforms, ensures that both the research impact and the benefits for Dixon Hall clients can be optimized.

c) Leveraging McMaster Aging-related Research Platforms (Years 1-5)

There are several aging-related research platforms at McMaster including the Canadian Longitudinal Study on Aging (CLSA). Data and biological samples from the CLSA provide McMaster researchers with one-of-a-kind opportunities to develop high-impact, targeted research agendas that answer critical questions by integrating the perspectives of a variety of disciplines.

In addition to the CLSA, MIRA has an extensive infrastructure needed to carry out and disseminate this research, including:

• Knowledge translation platforms such as the McMaster Optimal Aging Portal and the McMaster Health Forum that enable evidence-based research to be easily shared with researchers, decision-makers, and citizens;

• Platforms for developing, evaluating, and implementing new technologies such as the Smart Home within the Faculty of Engineering;

• Biobanks and high-throughput biomarker labs to support high-quality research;

• Centres such as the Geriatric Education and Research in Aging Sciences Centre (GERAS), the Physical Activity Centre for Excellence (PACE), and the Gilbrea Centre for Studies in Aging, providing complementary clinical, social, cultural and community links that amplify the research agendas of the Labarge Centre and the Institute;
• The MIRA Trainee Network, which supports and develops trainees engaging in interdisciplinary research on aging.

Educational outreach

The McMaster Institute for Research on Aging - Dixon Hall partnership would provide additional opportunities for knowledge dissemination and training opportunities for students in the MIRA Trainee Network and the related Association for Undergraduate Research in Aging (AURA; currently in development) in both being recipients of information as well as providing additional opportunities for these students to participate in and learn more about and participate in knowledge translation and dissemination.

Engagement in “Staying Healthy and Safe at Home”, a project MIRA has developed for consideration by Dixon Hall. This project aims to develop and provide standardized training and access to resources for staff and volunteers who work with service providers and programs on how to access and share the most appropriate up-to-date and evidence-based resources using the McMaster Optimal Aging Portal for improving the well-being of older Ontarians and their families. This project will be submitted for funding through the development of partnerships. This initiative would be easily integrated into Dixon Hall’s existing programs, enabling Dixon Hall to provide clients with more multi-faceted supports. This would also build Dixon Hall’s capacity by helping to ensure utilization of best practices and making certain that the most current research-based resources and programs are offered to its clients. In turn, MIRA’s access to the Dixon Hall client base can help bolster the number and diversity of clients engaging in this project.

There will also be opportunities or the partnership to engage in knowledge dissemination and knowledge translation events virtually and in person (when permitted) to engage the communities that Dixon Hall is currently serving, and to diversify the types of knowledge translation events that MIRA has developed a reputation for in the greater Hamilton area, as well as opportunities to provide these events to a wider national audience on a virtual platform.

C. Rationale for Establishment of the Research Centre or Institute:

1. Why is there a need for this Centre/Institute?

Bridging the gap between the academic and the practical, the McMaster Institute for Research on Aging | Dixon Hall Centre promises access to unique insights and research opportunities that neither organization could provide alone. The McMaster Institute for Research on Aging and Dixon Hall are proposing to capitalize on each other’s considerable strengths to forge a new partnership that will undoubtedly improve the lives of at-risk older adults: members of our community who have been profoundly affected by the complexities of coping with the extraordinary circumstances in which we all find ourselves only two decades into the 21st century. At-risk older adults can only benefit from access to supports and technology that can help them feel more connected and engaged with their community as they live at home. This collaboration will focus on a group that is not often seen and heard — older adults who are low-income, homeless, or precariously housed, or facing multiple or complex challenges to mobility, health, and other social barriers. Our aim is to improve their quality of life and enable them to live with dignity through purposeful initiatives planned over both the short- and long term.

Integral to the creation of the McMaster Institute for Research on Aging - Dixon Hall partnership is McMaster’s culture of collaboration as expressed clearly by researchers from diverse fields of study such as social sciences, biology, psychology, engineering and health sciences who continually work together to promote healthy and functional aging. This expertise, combined with unparalleled existing platforms, ensures that both the research impact and the benefits for Dixon Hall clients can be optimized.

MIRA|DH will support cross-cutting activities that align with the values and strengths identified in this proposal.

1. Alignment with McMaster’s Strategic Research Plan

MIRA – DH will build on and support McMaster University’s Strategic Plan for Research by contributing to the discovery, communication, and preservation of knowledge about mobility and aging. This collaboration will encompass the core values of student education and extending boundaries of knowledge through research via the MIRA Trainee Network and the Association for Undergraduate Research in Aging (AURA). The research conducted at the centre will advance society via best practices, and research and knowledge translation events will involve MIRA experts across all faculties, experts from Dixon Hall, as well as stakeholders, and international partners of MIRA including experts in aging from the University of Leeds, and the University of Lancaster. Working together with Dixon Hall, MIRA researchers will be able to disseminate information across a wider provincial, national, and international audience to strengthen communities and improve the lives of Canadians and others around the world.

Work to improve mobility in aging will help older adults live well for longer. The centre commits to partnering with local community agencies and centres to disseminate the learnings from our research to benefit the end user as well as involving the end user in the research from inception to knowledge translation and dissemination.
With respect to sustainability for global prosperity, the centre will extend work that Dixon Hall is already doing to provide access to technology for older adults, as well as work MIRA is already undertaking to improve environmental design in homes such as through the SmartHome research agenda, as well as on streetscapes to improve mobility in urban environments making them more walkable and accessible for older adults.

With respect to the strategic goal of addressing the growing burden of chronic disease MIRA|DH will provide opportunities to explore how public services provided to vulnerable and disadvantaged populations can be provided or improved.

In line with the strategic goal to address aging across the life span, MIRA|DH will be uniquely positioned to provide opportunities for researchers to interact with service providers to explore and develop opportunities to foster the health and mobility of older adults, focusing on areas including: impact of exercise on aging; interrelationship between psychological function and social function; causes and consequences of multimorbidity, frailty and polypharmacy; the role of caregiving, equity, economics and transportation in optimal aging; the understanding of the biological mechanisms of diseases of aging; evaluating approaches to knowledge translation to improve optimal aging; the use of technology to promote optimal aging and aging in place; understanding and defining mobility in aging; maintaining and restoring mobility in aging; and environmental facilitators and barriers that influence mobility in aging.

The strategic goal of examining data, artificial intelligence and the digital society will be explored through the analysis of data already available at Dixon Hall with respect to digital literacy and access to technology and access to the internet as it pertains to the clientele that utilize services provided by Dixon Hall and its partners. Specifically, during the COVID-19 pandemic, Dixon Hall staff had to pivot to use a variety of different methods to reach out to their clients during lockdowns and when physical contact was severely restricted.

Regarding the strategic goal of equitable, prosperous, and sustainable societies, studies such as the EMBOLDEN study conducted by MIRA and which will expand to MIRA|DH will explore how to promote physical and community mobility of older adults who experience difficulties participating in community programs and who reside in communities of high health inequity. This model allows researchers to work together with older adults in the community and service providers to promote mobility in community-dwelling older adults.

ii. Expected regional, provincial, national, global impact

Through the research proposed for the MIRA|DH Centre and through MIRA’s work that has been ongoing in the past five years to successfully develop strategic partnerships on a local, national, and international level, the expected impacts of this work will be at the local/regional levels as well as nationally and internationally.

Over the past five years MIRA has developed a wide network of collaborators and partners who support MIRA’s research, educational endeavors and community-based initiatives. MIRA’s partnership development has focused on strengthening our goals and leveraging resources while collaborating with new and existing partners who complement the Institute’s research strengths. MIRA has formalized over 30 strategic partnerships, while many more informal collaborations have been developed with a wide variety of stakeholders within McMaster University, locally, nationally, and internationally. These collaborations are with other academic institutions, government agencies, not-for-profit and private industry partners.

To date MIRA’s partnerships have resulted in significant leveraged funds, expanded research programs or platforms, new educational programs, and interdisciplinary learnings. MIRA’s five-year report highlights these partnerships and collaborations that showcase the diversity of partners engaged with MIRA and how they support the Institute’s many goals—from developing institutional strength in aging and mobility through scientific exchange programs to enabling stakeholder and citizen networks and promoting aging in place with evidence-based resources.

As MIRA|DH is nestled within MIRA, this to build and utilize the many regional partnerships Dixon hall has in place as listed in section A. By leveraging these partnerships and supporting Dixon Hall to generate evidence-based outcomes that will inform their programs and services, the regional impact is expected to be significant.
Through the proposed research objectives and projects, the outcomes will become of national and international significance as well. The potential to translate future findings of the proposed research to other cities and under-serviced older adults’ communities nationally and internationally.

D. Criteria for expanding the membership:

Currently membership to this Centre is included in the membership to MIRA. Currently MIRA has over 150 Faculty members and close to 100 trainee members and continues to grow to support the growing body of researchers engaging in aging research and identified priority by the University. MIRA is currently working on how to design different levels of membership so that the model is supportive to the needs of our researchers and stakeholders.

E. Detailed business plan:

Financial needs

Based on the proposal developed for MIRA|DH and careful budget development based on the proposed program of research and activities at MIRA|DH a request was made for $5M over five years 2021-2026. This amount was approved and donated by Susan Labarge for this work in 2021. The budget is detailed in Appendix A. The budget allows for Dixon Hall to establish core staff and processes for the Centre’s collaborative research. Directed MIRA|DH research initiatives builds on existing MIRA projects as described and funds are allocated for new initiatives and projects. There is an allowance in the budget to reimburse MIRA staff for their work with the MIRA|DH Centre.

Anticipated and secured sources of support

With the funds provided by the donor, MIRA will not require any additional funds from McMaster University. MIRA expects to secure additional sources of support through its partnership development activities as well as ability of the MIRA network to attract and leverage funding through funding opportunities. MIRA has been able to leverage significant funding in the past year to support research initiatives and the research in aging milieu at McMaster.

Space needs

Due to the global COVID-19 pandemic, we propose to establish first a virtual and later a physical centre at Dixon Hall in Toronto that will further cement McMaster’s position as a national leader in research on optimal aging and mobility; enriching the experience for almost 2,000 seniors who access Dixon Hall programming and supports on a yearly basis. Phase one of this collaboration will entail the creation of a virtual centre and leveraging existing strengths at both MIRA and Dixon Hall immediately to launch several projects that will generate important information to improve the lives of at-risk seniors and support Toronto’s communities. Phase two will include dedicated space at Dixon Hall’s Senior Services’ centre on Carlton Street or the soon-to-be renovated community hub on Sumach Street and expansion of further research activities. Dixon Hall’s Sanctuary provides a multi-purpose space ideal for hosting community and academic events. These spaces will be sufficient to house some administrative staff and will offer meeting and collaboration areas. The Youth Centre at Wyatt Avenue is an ideal space for intergenerational work.

Please note that there is no request for space from the university. MIRA|DH Centre will be supported through the staff that are located at the MIRA space at the McMaster Innovation Park in suite 109A. No funds will be required for space allocated at Dixon Hall. Staff at Dixon Hall will operate within the existing infrastructure at Dixon Hall. Activities supported will be hosted through existing spaces both at McMaster and at Dixon Hall.

Human Resource needs

Existing MIRA staff will support the activities for the proposed work within MIRA|DH similarly as they support MIRA’s overall work. Predominantly, MIRA’s Research Coordinator, Project Manager and Program Coordinator will support the...
collaborative work such as liaising with the researchers support the MIRA|DH research initiatives, managing and supporting data gathering and surveys and funding opportunities and all administrative processes including communications and promotions. Dixon Hall has hired two additional staff to meet their research needs. They have hired a Research & Community Lead and a Research and Communications Officer to be the main staff available to facilitate the collaborative research proposed for the Centre and to liaise with the Dixon Hall clientele.

MIRA’s support and the Dixon Hall staff are covered within the budget in Appendix A.

Faculty, researchers, and students will engage with MIRA|DH through collaborative projects and initiatives. MIRA and Dixon Hall staff will liaise with Faculty, researchers and students and support administrative work required. MIRA and Dixon Hall’s organization have a broad skillset through its staffing complement that can support all proposed activities.

It is anticipated that MIRA|DH will hire students for research projects and initiatives the centre will engage in. Graduate students may also be involved in MIRA|DH funded projects that will hire students for research and other related activities.

Organizational & Governance Structure

MIRA’s governance and management structure has been carefully crafted to ensure scientific excellence. It provides robust management and oversight from both the Labarge Gift Board as well as University senior leadership. The governance model allows for modification and accountability over time, which will be necessary for the management of scientific and executive strategies and growth.

To properly administer the proposed work and responsible use of funds, the governance model for the Centre is incorporated within MIRA’s governance model. Thus, focused centres created within MIRA use a single, centralized, and shared operational, governance and administrative model to facilitate advancement of the strategic objectives of all centres. The centralised governance and administration model maintains MIRA’s unique operating structure while creating multiple focused centres that will advance diverse but integrated strategic priorities such as outlined in this proposal.
The Scientific Director and co-lead for Dixon Hall have a seat on the Executive Committee. MIRA|DH will report their progress to the Labarge Gift Board at the annual Labarge Gift Board meeting.

a. Closure of Certificate and Diploma Programs

   i. The Closure of the Certificate in Metallurgy of Iron and Steel.

      At its December 7th, 2021 meeting, the Undergraduate Council reviewed and approved the proposal to close the Continuing Education’s Certificate in Metallurgy of Iron and Steel. Details of the proposed closure program are contained within the circulated material.

      It is now recommended, that the University Planning Committee approve the closure of the Certificate in Metallurgy of Iron and Steel, as set out in the attached.

Re: Closure of the Certificate in Metallurgy of Iron and Steel

I am writing to share information about the closure of the Certificate in Metallurgy of Iron and Steel offered through McMaster Continuing Education (MCE).

History
The Certificate in the Metallurgy of Iron and Steel originated in 1954 as a partnership between the Department of Extension (McMaster Continuing Education) and the Ontario chapter of the American Society of Metals. The program consisted of a lecture series that ran once a year. The official certificate began in 1955 and was designed as a 3-year program offering five courses once yearly. From 1959 – 1968, the program evolved to consist of 3 courses offered once a year. In 1997, the Faculty of Engineering and Continuing Education partnered to revise the program to a 6 course, in-person certificate. Finally, in 2012/13 the program was reduced to 5 courses and delivered fully online with the intent to broaden the audience to international pockets of the steel industry.

Current Situation
Enrolment in the metallurgy program has been slowly declining since before the 2012 decision to move to an online format. Reasons for this are multiple and include:

- Students complete a limited number of courses rather than complete the full program.
- The program struggles to find an audience, as the program is too technical for individuals working in the steel industry in administrative roles (i.e. data analysts, finance, sales). The steel industry recruits engineers from Material Science programs for positions in quality control, supervisors, metallurgists, etc. This will continue to reduce the number of engineering graduates attending the program as content will overlap with undergraduate studies.
- Active students are predominately from Ontario. The recruitment of international students from India, China, and Europe has not increased.
- There are limited opportunities for contract training in metallurgy. Past inquiries do not proceed as representatives from the steel industry have difficulty determining the specific training needs of employees. Furthermore, increased training programs offered by industry associations and online resources provide more direct education and training for employees in the steel industry.
Communication and Program Wind Down Plan

Every effort will be made to ensure that students, who are currently enrolled, have the opportunity to complete the certificate. The following steps will be taken to communicate the closure of the program and manage the wind-down phase:

- A program closure wind-down plan, including course offerings schedule will be prepared.
- Instructors will be informed about the closure and the wind-down plan.
- An email will be sent to all students who have enrolled in a metallurgy course in the last 8 years to inform them of the closure, as well as MCE’s commitment to ensure that students enrolled in the program will have the opportunity to complete the certificate.
- The last intake to the Metallurgy program, as well as the last offering of the foundation course (Met 450 Physical Metallurgy) will be Spring 2022. No new intakes to the program will be permitted beyond Spring 2022.
- Those interested in completing individual courses, without qualifying for the certificate will be permitted to do so.
- Scheduling will be aligned with the requirements of current students to complete the program.
- Students wishing to complete the program requirements will have 18 months to do so (May 2022-December 2023), with a final offering of courses scheduled during the Fall 2023 semester.
- A closure message will be posted on the MCE website.

MCE is committed to helping all current students complete the present program should they wish to do so.

Sincerely,

Dr. Lorraine Carter, Centre for Continuing Education

Re: Update to Terms of Reference – Hannah Chair

On behalf of the Faculty of Health Sciences, I am forwarding the attached revised Terms of Reference for approval.

The terms have been updated to better reflect the current processes as well as to clarify the appointment and renewal process for Chairholders.

Enclosed, please find the revision as well as the current ToR for this role.

Thank you for considering this recommendation. If you need further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Dean and Vice President
Faculty of Health Sciences
Hannah Chair in the History of Medicine

The Hannah Chair in the History of Medicine is named in honour of Jason A. Hannah, M.D. The endowment for the Chair was provided by Associated Medical Services (AMS). This Chair resides within the Faculty of Health Sciences (FHS) and will be jointly appointed to a relevant department in another Faculty (normally Humanities or Social Sciences).

Faculty Appointment:

The holder of the Chair will hold a full-time faculty appointment. Their primary appointment will be within FHS and their joint appointment will be in a relevant faculty as noted above. In addition to fulfilling the normal duties of a faculty member in FHS, they will take on some of the regular duties of a faculty member in their secondary department.

Duties and Responsibilities:

The Hannah Chair will:

- be responsible for the development and expansion of academic program(s) in the History of Medicine,
- ensure that aspects of medical history are introduced into the curricula of the education programs in both Faculties,
- develop and promote a University-wide seminar series,
- foster the appreciation of medical history among undergraduate, graduate and post-graduate trainees.

In addition to these educational contributions, it is expected that the Chair will maintain an active research program in their field.

Selection Process

The Dean of the Faculty of Health Sciences will consult with appropriate Faculties and Departments to determine whether the Chair will be filled via an internal or external search. Once this determination is made, a selection committee, co-Chaired by the Deans (or delegates) will be constituted.

The selection committee will follow all relevant university recruitment policies and will include representatives of both faculties, including faculty and students involved with academic programs aligned with the History of Medicine. Additionally, the committee may wish to have an existing Hannah Chairholder serve as an external consultant.

An appointment to the Chair shall be for an initial five-year period, with the understanding that renewal for additional terms, subject to satisfactory performance, is possible. The recommendation from the Selection Committee shall be forwarded to the Senate and Board via the Senate Committee on Appointments.
Renewal Process

In the final year of appointment, the Chair holder will submit a report of their accomplishments over the current term and will be interviewed by a review committee.

The review committee will be co-Chaired by the Department Chairs (or delegates) and will include appropriate representation from both Faculties, including faculty involved with academic programs aligned with the History of Medicine. Additionally, the committee may wish to have an existing Hannah Chairholder serve as an external consultant.

The recommendation from the renewal committee shall be forwarded to the Senate and Board via the Senate Committee on Appointments.

Reporting

Upon their appointment/reappointment as the Hannah Chair, the Chair holder will work with their Department Chairs (or delegates), to determine the appropriate focus of activities over their term.

The Hannah Chair will include their activities as the Chairholder in their annual career review documentation and these accomplishments will be considered when determining Career Progress and Merit (CP/M) scores.

Approved by Associated Medical Services, June 2021.

For approval via McMaster’s Governing bodies.
TERMS OF REFERENCE

THE HANNAH CHAIR IN THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE

General
An endowment has been provided by Associated Medical Services (AMS) toward the establishment of an endowed Chair in the History of Medicine. AMS has funded a Hannah Chair in the History of Medicine at each Ontario University with a Medical School for many years and wishes to endow these Chairs permanently. Because of the goals and objectives of AMS, there has been agreement reached within the University and with AMS that this Chair will be primarily based within the Faculty of Health Sciences but the Chair will have a joint appointment in the Faculty of Health Sciences and the Faculty of Humanities.

Details and Duties of the Proposed Chair
The holder of the Chair will undertake the normal duties of a faculty member in the Faculty of Health Sciences and in consultation with the Dean of the Faculty of Humanities and Chair of the Department of History will also take on some of the regular duties of a faculty member in the Faculty of Humanities. The Chair will be responsible for the development of an academic programme in the History of Medicine, will ensure that aspects of medical history are introduced into the curricula of the education programmes in both Faculties, will develop and promote a University-wide seminar series, and foster the appreciation of medical history among undergraduate, graduate and post-graduate trainees. In addition to making contributions to the education programmes of the Faculties, it is expected that the Chair will remain a leader in the field. An appointment to the Chair shall be for an initial five year period, with the understanding that renewal for additional terms is possible.

Selection Process
The first stage of the selection procedure will be the responsibility of the Deans of the Faculties of Health Sciences and Humanities who, working with their respective appointments committees and following consultation with appropriate departments, will determine whether the Chair will be filled after advertising externally or whether a suitable internal candidate can be identified. The recommendation from the Appointments Committees (following a recommendation of a duly constituted selection committee) shall be forwarded to the Senate and Board via the Senate Committee on Appointments.

RE: Revisions to SPS B13 - Extension of Timeline for Academic Assessments in Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic

In 2020, the University approved the establishment of SPS B13 Extension of Timeline for Academic Assessments in Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic. The intent of the Policy is to provide faculty with flexibility due to the wide-ranging impacts of the COVID pandemic. As required by the Policy, a review has been undertaken by University administrators and the Joint Committee, with the attached document being approved for recommendation to the Senate Committee on Appointments.

The proposed revisions include amended language to better reflect the original intent of the Policy, which is to provide faculty with the ability to use the automatically granted one-year extension in years 1, 2, or 3 or later, as long as the timing does not exceed 7 years. This clarification seeks to articulate the University’s commitment to flexibility given the disruptive impact of COVID across all Faculties. The other substantive change to the Policy is the inclusion of all faculty members appointed as of June 30, 2022. The next review period is scheduled for December 2022.

A tracked and clean version of the Policy has been included in the agenda package.

It is now recommended, that the Senate Committee on Appointments approve, for recommendation to the Senate and Board of Governors, the proposed revisions to SPS B13 Extension of Timeline for Academic Assessments in Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic, effective March 3, 2022.

PREAMBLE

1. McMaster University recognizes the exceptional circumstances that have resulted from the COVID-19 pandemic and the effect it has had on the career progression of its faculty members. COVID-19 has resulted in an unprecedented situation that has required faculty to rapidly adapt to new and/or alternate methods for teaching and course delivery for classes. This has affected their ability to engage in normal scholarly activities, University service, and has impeded faculty in their ability to undertake research and clinical scholarly activities.

2. The purpose of this Policy is to outline the details of how the academic assessment extension will be applied and administered in conjunction with the Tenure and Promotion Policy and SPS (Supplementary Policy Statement) documents.

3. For the purpose of interpreting this Policy:
   a) words in the singular may include the plural and words in the plural may include the singular;
   b) One-Year Extension means the one-year extension of a tenure-track appointment beyond the normal six-year limit and includes delaying the timing of their academic assessments by one year;
   c) SPS means the Supplementary Policy Statements;
   d) Tenure and Promotion Policy means the McMaster University Revised Policy and Regulations with Respect to Academic Appointment, Tenure and Promotion (2012); and
   e) Tenure-Track means:
      (i) tenure-track appointments;
      (ii) teaching-track appointments; and
      (iii) special appointments.

4. Normally the total duration of a faculty member’s initial Tenure-Track appointment may not exceed six years from the date of their first appointment (Section II, clause 6 of the Tenure and Promotion Policy). However, the Tenure & Promotion Policy does envision specific situations where these time limits may be extended (Section II, clause 7).

5. In keeping with the principles of the Tenure and Promotion Policy the University has deemed it appropriate that all Tenure-Track faculty have their appointment extended by one year, which will in turn affect the timing of their academic assessments for re-appointment, tenure/permanence, and promotion.
ELIGIBILITY

6. All faculty members holding a Tenure-Track appointment as of June 30, 2022, shall have their appointment extended by one year and the timing of their academic assessments may be delayed by one year.

7. Section II, clause 4 (c) of the Tenure and Promotion Policy will continue to apply to those in special appointments. Although this Policy outlines a one-year extension for all eligible Tenure-Track faculty, individuals do have the ability to proceed on the normal timing, as outlined in the Tenure and Promotion Policy.

EXTENSION GUIDELINES

Responsibilities of Department Chairs

8. It is the responsibility of the Chair of each Department to inform all members of the Department of the University’s tenure and promotion provisions related to the COVID-19 pandemic.

9. The Tenure and Promotion Policy (Section III, clause 37a) sets out the expectation that Department Chairs should meet at least once each academic year with all Tenure-Track candidates. Results of these discussions must be recorded in writing and agreed to by both parties. When a faculty member is eligible for the One-Year Extension the extended date must be clearly documented in the written summary of these discussions.

Faculty Member Decision to Proceed on the Normal Timing

10. The One-Year Extension for eligible faculty is automatically granted, normally applying to the next assessment. Faculty members in years 1, 2, or 3 have the option to proceed with normal timing for their 3 year assessment and use the extension later. The total tenure clock will be a maximum of 7 years.

11. Although this Policy outlines a One-Year Extension for all eligible Tenure-Track faculty, individuals do have the ability to proceed on the normal timing, as outlined in the Tenure and Promotion Policy.

12. Faculty members will inform their Chair in writing of their decision to go forward for re-appointment, tenure/permanence/CAWAR on the normal timing. In such cases, faculty should refer to the Tenure and Promotion Policy for guidance on timing and requirements.

Other Time Limit Extensions

13. The One-Year Extension is in addition to any other time limit extensions that have been made in compliance with Section II, clause 7 of the Tenure & Promotion Policy (e.g. special leave, medical leave, or a pregnancy/parental leave).
Dossiers

14. All eligible faculty members’ dossiers (prepared in compliance with SPS B12 Preparation of Dossiers for Re-Appointment, Tenure/Permanence and/or Promotion) shall include a copy of this Policy under section #8 identified in the Table of Contents (listed below):
